LEADING LIBERALS GET TOGETHER

Liberal leaders on the provincial and local levels met at last night's meeting of the Similkameen Liberal Association. Seated is provincial party leader Arthur Laing, who addressed the gathering, while beside him is Penticton lawyer A. D. C. Washington. Mr. Washington was re-elected president of the Penticton local association, to serve his second term. (Herald Staff Photo)

Quebec Considered as Summit Conference Site

LONDON (AP) — The Allied powers today were reported weighing the merits of at least three cities—Quebec, San Francisco and Vienna—as the site for a summit conference. Sources said they have been suggested during informal exchanges between British, American, French and West German diplomats who are here preparing for next month's meeting of foreign ministers in Geneva. The United States was said to be thinking of San Francisco as the meeting place although no such proposal has been put forward officially as yet. Britain, however, seems to favor Vienna, the capital of neutral Austria. Canada has informed the big

Four Gunmen Capture Cuban Plane in Flight

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Four gunmen — three of them former members of dictator Fulgencio Batista's secret police—captured a Cuban Airliner in flight today and forced the pilot to go 325 miles out of his way and land in Miami. The plane, carrying 17 American and Cuban passengers, landed at Miami International Airport. Police surrounded it immediately and took the hijackers into custody. Two of the gunmen said they had been captured by Fidel Castro's rebels, who overthrew Batista, but had escaped from the Cabana Fortress in Havana. The passengers said no one was hurt or roughly treated after the gunmen took over the plane shortly after it left Havana for a scheduled flight to the Isle of Pines, 100 miles to the south. The pilot was ordered first to take the plane to the Dominican Republic but when he said he didn't have enough fuel to go that far, he was ordered to go into Miami. Three of the hijackers were brothers. They identified themselves as Alfredo Mason, 31, former sergeant; Roland, 28, also of the secret police; and Jesus, 26, a former air force mechanic. Their companion, Leonardo Serrate, 54, a former secret police corporal, said he had not been imprisoned.

A. Bent Elected To CMA Group

Alan K. Bent, president of Pacific Pipe and Flume Ltd. at Penticton, has been elected to the executive committee of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, B. C. Division. Oscar R. Olson of Vancouver was re-elected chairman at the B.C. division's annual meeting in Vancouver yesterday. H. A. McDermid of Lumby was elected first vice-chairman and R. B. McDonnell of Vancouver, second vice-chairman. Elected to the executive committee along with Mr. Bent, were J. M. Green, H. L. Ramsay, H. S. Hamill and W. B. Wilson of Victoria; R. D. Perry of Trail; T. R. Bulman of Vernon; Gordon K. Burns of Nelson; R. Neville Smith of Creston; G. W. Erickson of Cowichan; R. W. Hilton of Prince George; and H. B. Simpson of Kelowna.

Traffic Safety Problem Solved At Sum'land Church

SUMMERLAND—Lorne Perry representing a committee from St. Stephen's Anglican church last night, asked the council for help with a traffic safety problem in front of the building on Sunday mornings between the time when Sunday school is out and church begins. The council agreed to the use of portable "no parking" signs during any service or when necessary. It was pointed out that there is plenty of parking space nearby where cars could be put which would further reduce the road hazard.

41 Calls Answered By Summerland Fire Department

SUMMERLAND—Annual report of Summerland Volunteer Fire Department at last night's council meeting showed 41 calls during 1958. Of these 11 were chimney fires; 11 grass fires; seven house fires with 2 homes totally destroyed and eight were classed as miscellaneous. Average attendance of firemen at fires was 81.5 percent and at the 29 practices over 70 percent. Replacements of personnel are Eric Brinton and Robert Rogers from the Experimental Station and Robin Wright and Murray Elliott at West Summerland. In making the report Fire Chief Joe McLachlan said total fire loss was reasonably low. He said there had been excellent team work and a good spirit among volunteer firemen, but he would like to see the average attendance at practices reach or exceed that shown at fires. Reeve F. E. Atkinson remarked that "the volunteer firemen give an efficient worthwhile service to the community."

FINE WEATHER, FIRST BLOSSOMS

Apricot blossoms, just starting to open in the Penticton area, will be in full bloom early next week if the warm weather continues. "First of the fruit tree blossoms" to make their appearance each year, Wenatchee Moorpark apricots are forecast to be in full bloom April 23 in the Summerland area. Continued warm weather could advance the full-bloom date by two or three days, however. Dr. D. V. Fisher at Summerland Experimental Farm, advised this morning that the average, full-bloom date for apricots is April 20 in the Summerland area with Penticton being a day or two earlier.

Connie Nicholas Gets Jail Term For Manslaughter

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Connie Nicholas, disappointed by her conviction of manslaughter of her wealthy lover, was sentenced today to two to 21 years. Judge Thomas J. Faulconer ordered her taken to the prison on the east side of Indianapolis later today. The 45-year-old double divorcee then returned to her lawyers and said: "I thought we were going to appeal and get bond set. 'We still can,' said Joseph Quill, one of her three lawyers. Mrs. Nicholas will be eligible for parole in 21 months. A jury of 12 married men convicted her of voluntary manslaughter—killing in the heat of passion—in the slaying of Forrest Teel, well-to-do drug firm executive, last July 31.

Council Opposes Gov't Taking Over Storage Dam Control

SUMMERLAND — Opposition to any plan in which the government takes over the control of storage dams was voiced by Summerland council meeting last night. This followed discussion on resolution No. 10, to be presented to the special session of the BCFGA to be held in Penticton, Tuesday, April 21. The resolution is being supported by the irrigation districts of South and East Kelowna, Naramata, and Okanagan-Mission-Kelowna. It asks government assistance in maintaining a portion of the irrigation system, "namely the water sheds and storage dams."

'Word of Soviet Cannot be Trusted'

TORONTO — (CP) — United States Ambassador Richard B. Wigglesworth said today the word of the Soviet cannot be trusted. "We in the free world cannot base our security on faith in the unsupported promises of the Soviet Union," he said in an address before a combined meeting of the Canadian and Empire Clubs. "That is why, in trying to reach an agreement to disarm, or an agreement to prevent surprise attack, the free world must protect its very survival by insisting on agreements which are self-enforcing or which are safe-guarded by adequate inspection and control systems."

BURLY POLICEMEN OUST COUNCILLOR FROM SESSION

MONTREAL — (CP) — Three burly policemen forcibly ousted councillor Frank Hanley from the city council chambers Wednesday night before the council narrowly adopted record civic budget estimates for 1959-60 in a stormy, last-ditch session. A button was ripped from the suit coat of Mayor Sarto Fournier as the constables fought to evict the struggling councillor who also serves in the Quebec legislature as an independent representative for Montreal's southwest riding of St. Ann. The wrangle developed after the fiery, slightly-built Mr. Hanley was ordered to break off his remarks on the estimates as the midnight deadline for adoption neared. Acting mayor W. E. Lauriault summoned a constable into the chambers at the request of Mr. Fournier and Mr. Hanley sat down. But he arose again moments later and started to criticize the administration. Two more constables were called when he refused to stop and they took him struggling into the ante room.

Airliner Lands Safely With Flat Nosewheel

A Canadian Pacific Airlines pilot gingerly touched down at Penticton airport yesterday with a flat nosewheel. Heaviest of 25 passengers aboard were moved to the rear of the twin-engine Convair as pilot Dennis Harland circled the field. A second nosewheel cushioned the landing and supported the liner as it taxied to the ramp. "We had an anxious few minutes," said Imperial Life executive M. R. Hamilton today. Passengers were calm, he added, though unaware of the trouble's cause. The tire lost pressure as the plane took off from Cranbrook yesterday afternoon. Pilot Harland passed up a scheduled stop at Castlegar, which has no hard-surfaced runway, and ordered the heaviest passengers moved to the rear of the plane. "The Convair has a capacity of 25 passengers," he said. Passengers were brought in to Penticton for supper at C.P.A. expense during the three-hour delay while another Convair flew in a replacement wheel. They finished their trip to Vancouver aboard the same plane.

Student Loan Group Plans Fund Drive

The Penticton Student Loan Association, at its annual meeting last night, made preliminary plans for a fund-raising campaign sometime next month, with an objective of $10,000. The organization, whose purpose is to loan money to deserving local students for the furthering of their education, has received $664.67 in donations to date, according to the treasurer's report, read by Mrs. W. Auty in the absence of W. Hoberton, treasurer. One $250 loan has been made since the organization was incorporated, Aug. 27, 1957. Directors named for the ensuing year were Mrs. John Bowen-Collins, Mrs. W. Auty, Mrs. D. W. Harvey, G. DesBrisay, Frank Christian, Major Victor Wilson, Tom Daly, Mrs. D. Tod of the school board, and H. D. Pritchard and George Gay of the high school staff. The directors will meet April 30 in the students council room of the high school, beginning at 8 p.m., to name a chairman and map out a program for the year.

ROTARY CHOICE

Ingrid McGladdery, 18-year-old senior matriculation student at Penticton High, has been chosen by city Rotarians as their entry in the Peach Festival Queen contest. Daughter of Mrs. Signe McGladdery, 798 Winnipeg Street, Ingrid plans to enter UBC next fall and prepare for a career as a high school teacher. (Herald Staff Photo)

Weapon Can Knock Out Heaviest Tank

OTTAWA (CP)—A fourth type of guided missile — this one a French weapon — has been ordered for Canada's armed forces, it was learned today. The missile is the SS-10, an army anti-tank weapon said to be capable of knocking out the heaviest known tank.

The purchase contract between the defence production department and Nord Aviation of Paris, the manufacturer, is classified so that the number of missiles on order is not known. However, it is understood that the initial order is of limited quantity because the Canadian Army first wants to evaluate the missile before ordering enough to equip all four infantry brigade groups. The United States Army also has the SS-10 on order from Nord Aviation. The SS-10 is guided by infantrymen or tank men by remote control through wires which unravel as the missile heads for its target. The missile can be launched from the ground, a ground vehicle, a helicopter or a plane. It can be carried and operated by a single soldier. Its range and speed are secret. Acquisition of the SS-10 will overcome one of the Canadian Army's biggest handicaps: Its inability to pierce the nine-inch armor plate of Russian tanks except at extremely short range. Other missiles wanted by the armed forces include a ground-to-air anti-aircraft weapon for the army, such as the American Hawk, and a surface-to-underwater weapon for the navy.

Canada, U.S. Relations Expected to Improve

By HAROLD MORISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
OTTAWA (CP) — Qualified Canadian authorities anticipate there soon may be sharp improvement in Canada's relations with the United States on the economic front. These views stem from reports trickling through diplomatic channels that the U.S. is considering removal of her oil import curbs against Canada and Venezuela and is preparing to negotiate on new international co-operation in surplus wheat disposal. An American decision on the oil situation is expected within a matter of weeks. The wheat negotiations will take place at Washington early in May at the five-country, food-for-peace conference. Still a matter of concern is the American curb on imports of lead and zinc. Canada and other exporters have protested these restrictions but there is no hope of any early decision to relax them. The oil restrictions were imposed more than a year ago, on a voluntary basis, but the American government recently moved to make these curbs mandatory to protect the U.S. oil industry against foreign competitors. There is growing optimism here that the U.S. may agree to lift the oil restrictions as they apply on shipments from Canada and Venezuela, though they may be retained on shipments from the Middle East and the Far East.

'BENNETT DEAL' ALLEGES LAING

Premier Bennett was involved in the Sommers-Gray bribery scandal, claimed E.C. Liberal leader Arthur Laing last night, in an address at Penticton. "It wasn't Sommers who made the deal," he alleged. Mr. Laing did not elaborate.

SPECULATION FAVORS FINANCE MINISTER

Fleming Next External Chief?

By ALAN DONNELLY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—A wave of recent press speculation has named Finance Minister Fleming as the man most likely to be Canada's next external affairs minister. Prime Minister Diefenbaker, who will pick the successor to the late Sidney Smith, is making no public statements on the matter. However, there are increasing reports that any move to fill the gap left by Mr. Smith's death March 17 will involve a cabinet shuffle, perhaps even a major one. Besides the 53-year-old Mr. Fleming, now involved in Commons debate on his new budget, speculation on a cabinet shuffle have named Justice Minister Fulton, Revenue Minister Nowlan, Transport Minister Hees and Works Minister Green. Several Progressive Conservative MPs have been suggested as likely cabinet material, one or more of whom might be moved out of any change. Shortly after Mr. Smith's death the 43-year-old Mr. Fulton was most prominently mentioned as a likely successor. More recent published specu-tion, however, has favored Mr. Fleming who has shown his ability in the tough finance portfolio. Mr. Diefenbaker has been acting external affairs minister in the last month and there is no urgent situation requiring immediate appointment of a full-time minister. Thus it is possible the decision may not come for some weeks. The consensus here is that Mr. Diefenbaker, in naming his new external affairs minister, will not go outside his present cabinet as he did in plucking Mr. Smith from the presidency of the University of Toronto. Among Conservative MPs suggested as possible cabinet appointees are Noel Dorion, 54, from Quebec's Bellechasse riding and Richard A. Bell, 45, of Carleton Place, Ontario, who was the party's national director from 1943-49. Others include Wallace Nesbitt, Oxford; John B. Hamilton, York West; David Walker, Toronto Rosedale; Arthur Maloney, Toronto Parkdale; and G. Ernest Halpin, London. All were parliamentary assistants to various ministers during the 1957 session.

DONALD FLEMING
... to change jobs?

LIQUOR PRICE HIKE

VICTORIA (CP)—Liquor will cost more in B.C., Attorney-General Robert Bonner said Wednesday. But how much and when has not been decided. Increase in federal tax on spirits, equivalent to about 12 cents on a 25-ounce bottle of whiskey, will cause the increase, Mr. Bonner said he has sought the advice of the Liquor Control Board on the matter.

RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SUCCESS of the Trout Creek branch of the Okanagan Regional Library are, left to right, Mrs. H. R. McLarty who started the branch and was its first custodian; Mrs. Robert Alstead, former custodian, now an assistant and Mrs. G. C. Harper, assistant. The branch now operates in the Trout Creek School and is the "pride and joy" of Mrs. Muriel Foulkes, head librarian, since books of a high calibre are always in demand. When circulation began 10 years ago in a clothes' closet in Bert Parrott's store, Mrs. McLarty's helpers were Jacquie Smith, June Willis and Mrs. Robert Blaney. Later the library moved to Stan Gladwell's house. Custodian now is Mrs. Ralph Smith who could not be contacted for the picture. Mrs. Victor Parker was also a custodian. Library hours in Trout Creek are 2:30 to 5 p.m. and 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

BOOKS WORTH READING IN DEMAND

Busy Library Means Pleasant Community

By MARJORIE VANDERBURG

The pottery display which has just ended at the West Summerland branch of the Okanagan Regional Library, started what may be a series of exhibitions that will make this room a centre in Summerland.

Such displays fit in well with a library's main purpose—providing good reading for a wide range of tastes.

A local citizen once remarked: "What would we do without our libraries in Summerland. We have three branches—one up town, one at lower town, and one in Trout Creek. If they weren't there we would miss them greatly, perhaps more than we realize."

READERS EVERYWHERE

Borrowers and readers of books are not found in any select corner of society. They are everywhere and in surprising numbers. Their opinions make a valuable guide to those who buy the books. They demand on the whole, good taste, common sense, honesty and a sense of social responsibility.

Their protests are heard at library headquarters in Kelowna if these tenets are not upheld in certain volumes which go on branch shelves.

These businessmen, housewives and others could quite logically be called on for book reviews and would turn in helpful advice for choice of reading.

The best of these people are dealing daily with truth and beauty as they see them. The essential quality of each good book has access to the mind and heart of each reader in a different way and possesses the power to stimulate to good effect.

Improvements in communication and mass learning, at least in this country, have made the public demand books worth reading, music worth listening to, and movies worth seeing. It is not necessary to "get it down to the average man's level." There are hopes that these things may, on the contrary, "go up."

NO READING, MEAN TOWN

Nancy Jones, a minister's wife, who wrote "For Goodness Sake," says: "Certain towns seem mean and livelier. A town given to outbreaks of bickering, one individual against another, one organization against another, may make for salty characters and provide colorful stories but it leaves nerves raw and wears the spirit down."

"Perhaps certain ugly surroundings may contribute to it; perhaps there is a lack of trace minerals in the soil," she continues, "but as we have moved from place to place we have found that usually it has been in places where there is a dearth of reading and people have been left turned in upon themselves."

In one place where the Jones lived Nancy attended the annual spring cleaning of the church. Side by side women scrubbed the long floor. She didn't object to that, but to the scrubbers' frame of mind.

SCRUBBING RESEARCH

They didn't discuss the lighter aspects of the work either but did real research—that is, whether scrubbing should be done with the grain or by the more radical circular motion. All the time they might have talked of some book they had read, some picture they liked, she thought.

Delightful things and delightful people are found in every place but sometimes in too small numbers. Libraries and newspapers in country communities open doors to keep those who are willing to keep abreast of national and international affairs. This reflects on the whole settlement to make it sound and agreeable.

READIN' GAND CHARACTER
Thus one of the greatest single factors dividing tedious from enjoyable people is their reading habits.

In a small town I know in Ontario there has been a library of sorts for 80 years, and for longer than this, a newspaper. The percentage of boys and girls who have gone to university and on to greater achievements is high. This could not have happened, I think, in a non-reading community.

HOSPITAL APPROVED

FORT ST. JOHN (CP)—Ratepayers have approved a 60-bed hospital to replace the present 25-bed institution in a bylaw poll here. A total of 1,292 were in favor of the $450,000 two-story development, while 727 favored operation of the hospital by the Sisters of Providence and 598 voted for a municipal operation.

Funeral Recalls Life Of Gallantry, Hardship

SUMMERLAND—Funeral services held this afternoon at St. John's Lutheran Church here for Mrs. Wilhelmina Thomas, 72, of West Summerland, recalls a story of gallantry in the face of great hardship.

Mrs. Thomas who was distantly related to the famous music composer, Johan Strauss, was born in Katusz, Austria, and went through shattering experiences during the devastation of World War I.

Her father was a bridge-building engineer. The family lived comfortably.

In 1905 she married Peter Boby who had a government position. Nine years later in 1914, the World War came and immediate conscription in Austria. Her husband was in the army and she and a small child were evacuated by train to a place near the Italian border.

After many wearying months the Russians in Austria Galicia were forced back and the Bobys returned home but only for six months.

The Bolsheviks advanced again. Mr. Boby was in the army once more. Their home and thousands of others were burned. This time Mrs. Boby was part of a long line of refugees in a mass evacuation, with a five-week-old baby and a crippled aunt whom a servant pushed in a wheelbarrow.

At last they were allowed to go home. Their city was ruined from bombardment with perhaps three buildings standing. Mrs. Boby's husband was wounded and in hospital but her courage kept the family together. In time the government gave wood to build houses. Mrs. Boby proposed to build with money she had as a

There was little nourishment and great distress.

BEER FACTORY REFUGE
One time the group took refuge in the cellar of a former beer factory and somehow two cows were brought down the steps and warm milk from them sustained the babies.

At night the men foraged for food while over their heads whined the ceaseless fire of Austrian, Russian and Italian troops.

The hideout was discovered and the Russians shot some of the men, forcing the rest of the group onto the open road again. A little food was given them by the army but people died along the way.

Finally the German military took them in munition wagons to a village in the Ukraine. The Ukrainians were kind, giving them food and shelter and caring for them for three months.

HOME CITY RUINED
At last they were allowed to go home. Their city was ruined from bombardment with perhaps three buildings standing. Mrs. Boby's husband was wounded and in hospital but her courage kept the family together. In time the government gave wood to build houses. Mrs. Boby proposed to build with money she had as a pension since her husband was a soldier.

The house was begun but never finished. Her husband died and another child, Ernest, who lives in Summerland, was born soon after.

Unable to get her husband's insurance money in the war-ravaged country, and unable to withdraw the family savings from any of three different banks, Mrs. Boby looked to Canada, the land of opportunity, where her parents had gone a number of years previously. Now they persuaded her to come, too, with her two little girls and her son.

RUSSIANS AGAIN

From Canada she sent money back for completion of the house in Austria, which was rented when finished. But in World War II the Russians took everything and again she lost all she had there.

On the Prairies she married Jacob Thomas who predeceased her.

All through the Second World War, Mrs. Thomas sent parcels of food and clothing to relatives in Austria, through Johan Strauss who is five generations removed from the famed Strauss of the "Blue Danube" waltz.

Sect Predicts Mid-East War By April 22

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Hundreds of the Davidians start gathering here Thursday to await "apocalyptic events that will result in the establishment of God's kingdom" in Jerusalem.

In its publication The Symbolic Code the sect, a divorced branch of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church, has predicted a war will begin about April 22 in the Middle East. The sect has its headquarters on a 941-acre tract near here.

The publication says the war "will pit nation against nation and Christian against non-Christian . . . after which the way will be open for those Christians who survive to establish the kingdom."

The members have been advised to "sever all earthly ties, if necessary," and to sell property that could not be brought with them to Waco.

The members, who are expected from many states and some foreign countries, will remain here "until the kingdom is set up," church officials said.

OVERLOADED CIRCUITS BIGGEST MENACE

Power Safety Prime Thought for Spring

By DALLAS BRADSHAW
Herald Staff Reporter

Spring, when many homes are being planned or are under construction, is an appropriate time to think about electrical safety.

Electricity has become such a part of our daily lives, we tend to overlook it. It is there at the flick of a switch.

Electrical accidents, either in the home or involving live electrical wires make up a small percentage of the total but this is no reason for complacency or carelessness.

One of the biggest contributors to electrical safety in the home is the Canadian Electrical Code used by the electrical industry throughout the country. Its purpose is to reduce the hazard of electrical accidents by spelling out the proper way electrical materials, devices, fittings and appliances should be installed. If your home is wired in accordance with this code you can be sure it is reasonably safe from electrical accidents providing you don't insist on overloading your circuits.

APPLIANCE STANDARDS
Another important contribution to electrical safety is the development of standards for the manufacture of electrical appliances. The work of making sure that appliances conform to standards falls on the Canadian Standards Association. All appliances sold in Canada must bear the CSA label of approval.

The majority of the homes in Canada were built before World War II. In the 14 years since the war dozens of new appliances have been developed and are used extensively in Canadian homes. These homes are not wired to provide for these appliances and here lies the cause for the most common electrical accidents in the home.

Overloading a circuit, according to G. L. Laycock, divisional superintendent of West Kootenay Power and Light Company at Penticton is far and away the most common cause of accidents. People string wires octopus fashion from a single outlet. The copper wires become overheated, and "cook" the insulation, which cracks.

DON'T SUBSTITUTE
This may cause the two conductors to come together, thus burning out the fuse. Instead of replacing the fuse, too many of us substitute a penny or tinfoil. The circuit is still overloaded and there is now none of the protection offered by a fuse, so that a fire can easily start.

By making sure your home is properly wired for today's appliances, and by buying only those displaying the CSA seal, almost all accidents in the home can be prevented.

Electrical accidents involving live wires of any kind are few and far between.

DON'T LEAVE CAR
In Penticton and district there have been virtually none that Mr. Laycock can remember. If a power line should happen to fall across your car, Mr. Laycock advises: "Stay put. Don't leave the car."

In most cases the line will be dead, but if it isn't and you leave the car, you probably will be. Your body forms a path from the metal of the car to the ground.

The car may have become energized and since the rubber tires are a non-conductor, you are safe in the car.

If possible, stop a passing motorist and have him call the electrical utility who will dispatch men to repair the circuit. If you feel that you must leave the car, Mr. Laycock offers this bit of advice: "Jump, so that no part of you touches the car."

Accidents caused by falling wires are very rare but this should insure safety both in the home and around electrical wires.

Don't have more than one appliance per outlet and be sure that appliances are CSA approved. Use nothing larger than 15-ampere plus fuses.

URGES CLEMENCY
CHILLIWACK (CP) — Municipal council has sent a telegram to Solicitor General Leon Balcer at Ottawa urging clemency on behalf of Robert Arthur Chapman of nearby Rosedale who is scheduled to be hanged April 28 for the shotgun slaying last fall of his brother.

Summerland Dance Fun Centre This Weekend

BY D. V. G.

Thirteen squares, including many Penticton dancers, had a wonderful time last Saturday night at Westbank. Chuck Inglis of Peachland did an excellent job of emceeing with the help of visiting callers.

This Saturday, April 18, dancing is a bit closer to home. Summerland Pairs and Squares are inviting all square dancers to join them at their party on that date. Les Arkell, who hopes to cast off his cast by that date will emcee the dance, and is hoping for lots of help from visiting callers.

It's always fun to dance at Summerland, so come along, bring a snack and coffee will be served by your hosts.

TO CHOOSE FROM
The next Saturday, April 25, there will be three dances to choose from — one in Penticton

Don't hang a cord over a nail; it may become frayed. Replace frayed wires immediately.

Keep lamp cords under rugs where they can't be stepped upon. Disconnect appliances by pulling the plug. Don't tug on the cord.

Never touch any type of electrical appliance while in the bathtub. And keep cords out of the hands and mouths of children.

The one sure rule in the case of any exposed wire. The laymen cannot be sure if it is a live wire or a telephone wire and touching it could be the one "dead" sure way to find out.

Street Washing Job Took Eight Hours With Hose

SUMMERLAND — It took three men eight hours to wash the winter debris, gravel and fine sand from part of the main streets at West Summerland with the fire hose. Work was done from the B.C. Shoppers' Corner on Hastings Street, to the Bank of Montreal on Granville.

Superintendent of works, K. M. Blagborne reported to last night's council meeting that merchants were pleased with the job.

Councillor Norman Holmes said it took longer than he anticipated. "Handling the hose was a heavy business," he said. "The process is economical since it takes a long time to sweep the streets and results are not as good."

Decision was made to finish the job as far as the schools.

Hospital Auxiliary Given Go-Ahead on Thrift Shop Plans

SUMMERLAND — The Ladies' Hospital Auxiliary here has made tentative plans to operate a Thrift Shop.

Request for use of the former municipal hall for the purpose was granted unanimously by last night's council meeting, the organization to pay for light and fuel.

The auxiliary has been looking at other locations, it was reported and has not decided on the site of the proposed shop.

Okanagan Not Overrated Say Insurance Visitors

M. R. Hamilton, director of agencies for Imperial Life Assurance of Canada; F. E. Murphy, assistant superintendent of agencies, and D. E. Sanderson, underwriting officer, made a brief stop-over in Penticton last night during their annual tour of all Canadian agencies.

"It's like coming home," Mr. Hamilton said of his visit to the Okanagan. "I'm afraid I tire my colleagues in Toronto with my descriptions of Penticton."

For Mr. Murphy and Mr. Sanderson it was a first trip to the West. "It certainly hasn't been overrated," Mr. Sanderson said. "I always thought the Niagara area was the garden of Canada, but I'm having to change my ideas in a hurry."

After leaving Penticton the trio travels north as far as Prince George then crosses to Vancouver Island for the continuation of their tour.

Asked how he found Penticton businesswise, Mr. Hamilton said he felt the city was progressing favorably, noting a 15 per cent increase in Imperial Life business during recent months.

Broadcast Board To Hear Local Bid For Power Boost

An Ottawa announcement today said that the Board of Broadcast Governors will hear the application of Radio Station CKOK, Penticton, to increase its day time power to 10,000 watts.

The station's night time power will remain the same for the present.

The Board of Broadcast Governors will meet in Ottawa, May 12 to 14. In addition to the local application the board will hear 12 applications for new radio stations and four applications for power increases.

President and general manager of the local station, Maurice P. Finnerty, will go to Ottawa to present a brief to the board.

Sum'land Ditchman Honored by Council On Retirement

SUMMERLAND — Ben Newton, ditchman at Summerland for the past 40 years is retiring, and was honored by Summerland council at last night's meeting. He was presented with a smoker's stand and pipe.

In making the presentation Reeve F. E. Atkinson said, "Summerland is a good community where things run smoothly because of people like you who stay on the job and do it well."

A small brass plaque suitably engraved was attached to the smoking stand.

VERNON BAND INVITED

VERNON (CP) — The girls' Trumpet Band here has been invited to take part in the Seattle Sea Fair Aug. 1 and torchlight parade Aug. 8. The band has also been asked to play at Victoria May Day, May 18; Vancouver PNE; Calgary band jubilee July 5 and Calgary Stampede July 6.

FINAL UBC EXAMS
VANCOUVER (CP) — Most of the 9,950 students attending the University of British Columbia begin writing their final examinations Friday. Included are more than 1,000 persons writing in hopes of receiving degrees this year. Results will be announced May 14.

He is survived by his wife Mary; five sons, Norman in Vancouver, Calvin in Kimberley and Edward, Helmer and Ronald, all at home; and four grandchildren. A brother Helmer lives in Lund, Manitoba, and two sisters also survive him on the Prairies.

TALK OF THE VALLEY

A FAMILY IN AMSTERDAM will soon hear the music of Summerland Baptist Church Choir. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Henk Wouters were among the choral group when it recorded two tapes for mailing to Mr. Wouters' father in Holland. The elder Wouters visited Summerland several years ago, and remarked on the singing of the choir.

SPRING CLEAN-UP in Keremeos has the town looking brighter already. The drive is sponsored by the Village Commission.

THE OLD LAKE TUG S.S. "Kelowna," has been put to the torch. Well known for years as she towed barges up and down the lake, the "Kelowna" was scrapped two years ago. But part-time junkman Percy Ellergott of Okanagan Landing thinks he may not break even on the deal. The "Kelowna" was so sturdily built that he couldn't get everything out of her.

NEWSPAPER GREMLINS were active on the front page of yesterday's Herald. Through their handiwork and the momentary confusion of a Herald staffer, a photo of H. J. Wells of Summerland appeared, wrongly identified as that of Eric Tait of Summerland. Both are active in the fruit industry, but Mr. Wells is on the board of governors of B.C. Tree Fruits, while Eric Tait is a member of the B.C. Fruit Growers' Association central executive.

SUMMERLAND PATRIARCH T. J. Garnett was 86 years old last week, but he's out in his garden every day. He took out an old fruit tree last week, and is busy with his seeds these days.

ANOTHER RAY OF SUNSHINE in Penticton yesterday was singer Lorraine McAllister, who passed through on her way to Kelowna, where she was to do a TV show.

Looking into the crystal ball of the future we see that Peach City Promenaders of Penticton are putting on a big dance on May 9, in connection with the Peach Blossom Festival, with Bill Gilmore of Vancouver as emcee. So plan to be on deck for this one.

And still further ahead, on June 13, the Wheel'n'Stars club of Penticton are having their big night with Ivan Hall of Ephrata, Washington, as emcee. So get out your pencil and mark these dates on your kitchen calendar.

W. K. GWYER

Cominco Man Named to Power Company Post

TRAIL — W. K. Gwyer of Trail has been appointed assistant general manager of the West Kootenay Power and Light Company.

The announcement was made today by R. G. Anderson, president and general manager.

Mr. Gwyer will assume his duties today. He had formerly been in the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company.

Born in Vancouver, Mr. Gwyer graduated in civil engineering at UBC in 1936 and worked on construction at the coast until 1940.

In that year he joined the RCAF and for his service in Canada and overseas, was awarded the MBE.

After the war he worked for Stevenson and Kellogg until he joined Cominco in 1950. In 1952 he became assistant manager of the engineering division.

S. J. Johnson Rites Tomorrow

Last rites for the late Swaim John Johnson, 60, will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. from Penticton Funeral Chapel.

Mr. Johnson, a resident of Penticton since 1956, died suddenly of a heart attack Monday.

He came to Canada from his native Sweden as a child, and was raised near Eriksdale, Saskatchewan. He later farmed in the area until coming to Penticton.

He is survived by his wife Mary; five sons, Norman in Vancouver, Calvin in Kimberley and Edward, Helmer and Ronald, all at home; and four grandchildren. A brother Helmer lives in Lund, Manitoba, and two sisters also survive him on the Prairies.

LAING RAPS DEBT CLAIMS

Aid to Grower Urged At Production Level

BY BILL STAVDAL
Herald Staff Reporter

A government irrigation board to administer the entire Okanagan and Fraser Valley was advocated last night by B.C. Liberal leader Arthur Laing.

He told the annual meeting of the Similkameen Liberal Association that all irrigation districts should be taken over by the government.

"I'd like to see help for the growers at the production level, rather than subsidies," said Laing.

Irrigation was one of many topics he touched on during a 75-minute address before 28 district Liberals in Knights of Pythias Hall.

FALSIFIED FACTS
Mr. Laing attacked Premier Bennett's fiscal policies, denouncing his claim that the province will soon be debt-free.

"My difference with Mr. Bennett is that the man has deliberately falsified the facts about B.C.," he asserted.

"The B.C. Power Commission owes the people of this province $250 million."

The government-backed Pacific Great Eastern Railway has issued bonds amounting to $185 million, he added, and the Highways and Bridges Authority another $110 million.

"$87 million in school bonds are guaranteed by the government. Four months ago the government owed contractors $5 million."

IGNORING DEPRECIATION

"The premier says the PGE is paying," Laing elaborated. "Last year it took in $9 million."

"It should have grossed $90 million to make a profit. The premier is ignoring depreciation and interest."

ROAD REPORT

Fast-melting snow on the Hope-Princeton highway has brought the official road report back to "good" says the Department of Highways.

Local roads are in good shape with detours seven and nine miles south of Penticton.

Local Liberal Groups Name '59 Officers

Two leaders of Penticton and district Liberal party groups were chosen last night at meetings in Knights of Pythias Hall.

Lawyer A. D. C. Washington was re-elected president of the Penticton local Liberal Association, while Patrick Moen was elected new chief of the Similkameen Liberal Association.

Both groups held annual meetings in the hall after a last-minute switch from a scheduled gathering in Odd Fellows Hall.

Others on the Penticton local executive are: vice - president, Robert Ireland; secretary, Ralph Robinson; treasurer, Merv Allen; directors, Mrs. David MacAcker, Dick Parnley, Alex Cumming, J. J. Winkler, Maurice Finnerty and Eric Larsen.

Those on the riding executive with Mr. Moen are past president Bruce Howard and directors, Mrs. Fred Schiller, Penticton; Darrell Cordell, Keremeos; Frank Venables, Oliver; Dann Mullins, Princeton; Frank Laird, Penticton and W. A. Gilmour, Penticton.

"Millions in unsalable school bonds are piling up in Victoria."

On the subject of agriculture, he said only two-thirds of one per cent of the province's budget is set aside for this branch.

"In 1958, B.C. imported 75 per cent of its beef, 50 per cent of its fruit and vegetables and all its cereal grains and flour, a total of $125 million."

"In some years the Okanagan has been the only agricultural area bringing in money."

TWICE NATIONAL DEBT
B.C.'s 1959 budget of $287 million imposes a tax burden twice as heavy as the national average, said the speaker. Of this amount, $84 million will come from sales tax—$175 from each family."

He also denounced the province's high-cost electrical power. "In Ottawa they pay $3.02 for the same amount of power we pay $9.72 for," he stated.

"The next government has got to cut our power rates in half," he said.

He touched briefly on education.

"We have got to reconcile ourselves to the higher cost of education," said Mr. Laing. "However, we haven't found a basis for sharing the load."

EROSION OF DOLLAR

On the federal scene, he called the government to task for allowing "the erosion of the Canadian dollar."

"I would have supported the rather brutal increase in taxation," he said, but noted that the bond market had sagged since Mr. Fleming's announcement last week.

"We have inflation and stagnation side by side."

Mr. Laing confirmed earlier statements that he will probably resign as provincial leader at the Liberal convention in Vancouver this May.

"You'll quite probably have a new leader after the convention," he said.

VICTORIA TO PAY $386,607 OF OLIVER SCHOOL BUDGET

School District No. 14 has received notice of final determination of the budget for the calendar year of 1959. The approved budget shows a gross budgeted expenditure of $607,971, an increase of $36,520 over 1958.

The government grant towards this year's expenditures will amount to $386,607 with $190,627 to be raised by district taxation.

The Oliver share of this amount will be $36,963 and that of Osoyoos village $25,204. Remaining 67% of the total or $128,460 will be collected from the rural area.

The tax levy for educational purposes for current year show an increase of $10,859 from that of the previous year.

TV Service Explored For Keremeos-Cawston

KEREMEOS—Television service for Keremeos and Cawston may soon be a reality.

Over 80 enthusiastic citizens, were told how the area could obtain TV service by means of an Adler Satellite transmitter, at a public meeting held under the joint sponsorship of Keremeos and Cawston Board of Trade here, Tuesday.

S. A. Gould of Princeton, through whose efforts an Adler satellite was established at Princeton, told the group that $10,000 capital was needed to set up the transmitter, and explained the service it would provide.

NON-PROFIT SOCIETY
Mr. Gould suggested the recruiting of 200 persons who would be willing to guarantee the sum of $50 each and would form a non-profit organization under the Societies Act, to sponsor TV service.

Each set would require a $20 converter and an antenna to receive the telecasts relayed by the satellite. It is hoped that one site would be sufficient to cover both the Keremeos and Cawston areas. Class A TV could be obtained for a radius of five miles and Class B for a radius of 15 miles. Transmitter would be located on Daly Mountain which has logging roads to the top.

A committee was named to canvass prospective television society members.

Committee members are: Norman Wraz, Walter McDonald, Andy Winkler and George Hodgson for Keremeos; Ramsay McDonald, Doug Crowe, and Dale Evans, for Cawston; and Jerry Goodkey for Ollala.

Executive members of the Keremeos and Cawston boards are also part of the canvassing committee.

When it Comes to Shopping It's the Woman Who Counts

As every husband knows, when it comes to shopping it's the woman of the house who counts.

Four dollars out of every five spent in Canada on domestic purchases are spent by the housewife. Win her positive support for the national "Buy Canadian" drive and the battle itself is as good as won.

But can it be done? Many people doubt it. The average woman, they say, is not remotely interested in where the things she buys are made. As a rule, she couldn't care less.

We do not under-estimate the force of this argument. There's a lot to it. The volume of our imports and the level of our unemployment are the best proof of that. But we are decidedly not of the opinion that nothing can be done about it.

We are convinced that where a real and sustained effort is made to get the "Buy Canadian" message across to the housewife she will not be indifferent to it.

An excellent example of the kind of thing we have in mind is contained in a recent issue of a widely-read employee magazine produced by one of Canada's largest manufacturers of steel.

A two-page, well-illustrated "spread" directed at the housewife tells the story of a can of tomato juice. Superimposed on a relief map of Canada there is a series of pictures. These show the steel plant where the tin plate for the cans is made; an operative in the plant of the can manufacturer; the farmer who grew the tomatoes; the plant where the cartons and labels for the cans are made; the canning factory where the juice is packed; and finally the shippers, warehousemen and truckers who handle the job of distribution of the finished product.

"When you do your shopping," says the message, "do you ever consider all the work which has gone into the manufacturing and marketing of the vast array of products on display in our stores?"

"Here, for instance, is what goes on to put that can of tomato juice on your grocer's shelf and here are some of the people involved. When you choose an imported brand ahead of a Canadian one you jeopardize their jobs. On the other hand, when you choose a Canadian brand you put your dollar to work in Canada, keeping Canadians working."

As we say, we find it hard to believe that this kind of common-sense appeal will leave the Canadian housewife cold. On the contrary, we are quite certain that once she is made aware of how much depends on her, she will not be slow to respond. Indeed, there is already some evidence to support this view.

The price and quality of Canadian-produced tomato juice compares very favourably with imported brands, and the same can be said of a thousand-and-one other products.

By ensuring that her purchases, as far as possible, bear the "Made-in-Canada" label, the Canadian housewife will be contributing greatly to the future prosperity of both her community and her country. And, it may very well be, to the continued employment of her own husband, son or brother.

A Long, Sharp Fence

Cassandra, block-busting columnist for the London Daily Mirror, recently dipped his pen in acid to comment on a few of our world leaders:

If there are three men who can be said to have more influence than anybody else on the destiny of the world they are:

- One: Nikita Khrushchev.
- Two: John Foster Dulles.
- Three: Dwight David Eisenhower.

In that order.

The first is in roaring good health and is brimming over — or perhaps bristling is a better word — with exuberance, sardonic humor and guile.

The second has cancer; a fanatic devotion to duty and a taste for brinkmanship.

The third has had four major illnesses in four years, is weary, exhausted and confused and is off in semi-convalescence to play his unending game of golf at Augusta in Georgia. He is the Ramsay MacDonald of America.

There is a bitter-sweet tale that is going round Washington about the golfing President. It is that the inevitable James Hagerly, who runs the weekly press conference, forgetfully introduced Eisenhower the other day to the assembled newspapermen by shouting "Fore!"

Two old sick men tackling Khrushchev is unfair to old sick men — and unfair to the rest of the world, too.

O for the likes of Harry Truman! Or Franklin D. Roosevelt before he swallowed the deadly bait that Joseph Stalin laid before him at Yalta.

How long can this great and generous nation go rudderless and almost out of control before the Communist gale?

Mr. Nehru, the prime minister of India, has ended his ear-splitting silence over Tibet.

And into this whirlpool of blood and fury he has made his contribution. A drop of distilled water.

For years the Pandit has lectured the world on its sins. For years no major issue involving liberty and the rights of Asia has been free from his voluminous comment. His self-righteous posture, his ugly honeymoon with Bulganin and Khrushchev, his careful flirtation with Chou-en-Lai have been a source of irritation to the West, who are often demonstrably in the wrong, but grow a little tired of being reminded of their sins.

Now comes the big test a little nearer home to Delhi than Hungary.

Right on his northeast doorstep Mr. Nehru is witnessing a massacre, that has most of the horrible ingredients of Budapest. Thousands have been murdered in a national Tibetan uprising against the Chinese, and the Dalai Lama himself, who begged Nehru to give him asylum three years ago, is a hunted fugitive.

But what does Mr. Nehru say?

He says, "Have patience."

He says to the Tibetan delegation who supplicated his assistance: "There is nothing you can do here. It is better that you return to your homes."

When he was questioned about help and refuge for political refugees Gandhi's tepid successor said: "General instructions to Indian border checkpoints are that anyone attempting to cross the frontier should be stopped unless he has the necessary travel papers."

And permits?

And visas?

And inoculations?

Austria threw wide her frontiers to the Hungarians when they were attacked by the might of the Red Army.

But not India.

Mr. Nehru wants to see their fingerprints. Even we in the decadent West, who have so interminably been castigated by Mr. Nehru and his admonitory henchman Mr. Krishna Menon (who holds the all-time record for emptying the United Nations Assembly in New York any time he cares to speak), have an infinitely better record for receiving the hunted and the pursued than this cautious Old Harrowian.

It is a long, sharp fence that he sits upon.

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME

REPORT FROM THE U.K.

Britain's First 'Copter Station

By M. MCINTYRE HOOD
Special London (Eng.) Correspondent
For The Herald

LONDON — Down at Battersea on the south bank of the Thames, I have been looking over a huge, bare T-shaped stretch of newly-poured concrete which juts out over the river. On this stretch of concrete has been painted a huge letter "H". In the near future, it will constitute, from the air, a new landmark on the London scene. This concrete platform is destined to be Britain's first public-helicopter or helicopter station.

The Battersea heliport, designed to provide terminal facilities close to the heart of London for helicopter flights, is now in the last stages of construction. It will be officially opened on April 23 by John Hay, M.P., Joint Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Transport.

WELL EQUIPPED
The heliport will be well-equipped for the purpose for which it has been built. The landing platform, which is built out over the river bed, is capable of handling the largest types of British and American helicopters now in existence. The traffic-handling facilities, which come into operation on the day after the official ceremony, include radio communication and navigational aids, refuelling, towing and parking facilities for six medium-sized helicopters. Fire-fighting and rescue launch facilities are provided. Two car parks on the site will provide for motorists using the heliport. The central administration building, now completed, contains a passenger reception hall and lounge. Provision has also been made for customs and immigration clearance of passengers and baggage, and also of freight.

FLY IN FROM RIVER
The layout of the heliport provides that helicopters will fly

along the course of the river when coming in to land. A lighting system is being installed to make night operations possible, but this will not be completed by the opening day. Officials of the Westland Aircraft, Limited, which has built the heliport, told me, however, that it is regarded as only a temporary helicopter station, and will be used as an experimental unit for larger developments, later.

Permission to build it was given by the authorities on this basis. It will, however, be in use for a number of years, until such time as helicopter traffic increases to such an extent that it will be necessary to provide larger permanent helicopter stations in various parts of the country.

Suggestions on Breast Surgery

BY HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Each year about 50,000 American women undergo breast surgery. As of right now, there are approximately 1,000,000 women in the United States who have undergone such surgery of the breast.

COMMON OPERATION
While still a serious operation, it has become so common that most women who need such surgery take it in stride. The chief concern of many doctors is not so much for the operation itself, but for the manner in which the patient reacts during convalescence.

As during the recovery from any illness or operation, activities, of course, must be guided by the doctor. The right mental attitude is highly important too.

A FEW SUGGESTIONS

I would like to pass on a few suggestions to the women who will have breast surgery in the next year, and to those who have had it recently.

One of the main things to guard against is self-pity. Don't pamper yourself and don't let your family pamper you. A little sympathy is expected, of course, and even needed, but don't let it get out of hand.

A great many persons pamper themselves by over-eating. Generally, this is inadvisable for anyone, especially those of you who have just undergone breast surgery. Unless your doctor advises you

OTTAWA REPORT

'Let's Not Be Nasty to Grits'

By PATRICK NICHOLSON

Under the dogma of "Let's not be nasty to the Grits," open-handed generosity is being shown to some of those who have most furiously attacked the Federal Government in the recent Newfoundland controversy.

A strong critic is Geoff Stirling, long-time supporter of Newfoundland's Liberal premier, Joey Smallwood. Stirling repeatedly founded and still publishes the "Weekly Herald" newspaper in Newfoundland.

So close is his association with the Liberal Party that, against the recommendation of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, he was able to obtain both radio and TV broadcasting licences in St. John's, Newfoundland, under the former Liberal rule at Ottawa. It was widely reported that Premier Smallwood and ex-Liberal Cabinet Minister Plickersgill must have intervened directly with the federal government on his behalf, to have the CBC over-ruled and get the licences issued to him.

Mr. Stirling later also took over the operation of the French-language radio station CJMS in Montreal.

His direct or indirect investment in, or interest in the profits of, those three stations are believed to exceed the 100 per cent ownership of one station, which had previously been the maximum permissible ownership in private broadcasting stations.

NEWFIE VERSUS OTTAWA
The Newfoundland "Weekly Herald" has been commenting bitterly on Ottawa's stand in the quarrels which have been picked by Newfoundland's premier.

Typical was this editorial suggestion as to our Prime Minister's motives, in what that paper describes as the "unspeakable, indescribable betrayal of Newfoundland."

"BETRAYED"
"Mr. Diefenbaker has set himself up as the grand-daddy of those who will go to any length to satisfy personal enmity."

Twice under the former Liberal government, Mr. Stirling applied to the CBC for a further licence, to operate also an English-language radio station in Montreal; both times the CBC rejected his application.

Last month he made a third application, this time to the newly appointed Board of Broadcast Governors, who after a very thorough study, recommended that the Government should grant that licence.

The BBG is responsible for hearing applications for licences for broadcasting stations, and recommends thereon to the Government. The Department of Transport is responsible for verifying the technical feasibility of the application. According to the legislation, no licence is then issued until the Governor in Council, which means the Cabinet, signifies its approval.

A CLOSE LOOK TO COME?
Very, very bitter resentment has been aroused in influential quarters in the province of Quebec, by the recommendation that a further licence should be issued to Mr. Stirling in Montreal. This resentment is naturally noted among Quebec would-be broadcasters, who consider that they have prior claims and could perform a better community service than this invader from Newfoundland. Resentment is also noted among strong Quebecers, who recall the vivid Labrador boundary dispute between their province and Newfoundland; and among anti-Liberals who anticipate that the proposed station would broadcast more of the same diet as is heard from Stirling's other English-language mass communication agency.

If this licence is granted by the Government, it will presumably indicate a new policy towards multiple station ownership, in view of Mr. Stirling's other interests.

The granting of this licence would also demonstrate to every student of politics a very interesting alternative. Either the BBG is the most unprecedentedly independent and unfettered agency ever set up by any Canadian government; or else influence pedlars at work behind the scenes value personal gain more highly than party benefit.

Canadians Help Children in India

By RUSSELL ELMAN

MADURAI, India (CP)—Clutching the Canadian toy car he got for Christmas, an 11-year-old Tamil boy at the Ballar Illam children's home here introduced himself in English:

"My name is Ganesan. My brothers and sisters are Stony Plain Elementary and Junior High School, Alberta."

Today Ganesan owes a new start in life to 250 Stony Plain boys and girls who each give a dime a month to provide him with food, shelter, clothes and schooling. He is one of 600 Indian foster-children adopted by Canadians through the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada.

The USC, with headquarters in Ottawa, now sponsors 13 children's homes and two vocational training centres in India. Most of these, including Ballar Illam, are run by the Guild of Service, an Indian voluntary organization.

GOODWILL FOR CANADA
"An army of enthusiastic little friends with goodwill for Canada is growing up in our homes," said Dr. Lotia Hiteshmanova, USC executive director. "You cannot measure in dollars and cents the personal interest and love shown for the children by the foster parents."

Ballar Illam recently moved to a new site at Tiruppurankundram, a village six miles from the large industrial city of Madurai. Forty children, aged 3 to 12, live in a clean, whitewashed building at the foot of a 200-foot rock topped by a Hindu temple and Moslem mosque.

The children are all orphans or from Madurai district families who have no means of supporting them. At present 24 have Canadian foster-parents who each give $80 a year for their upkeep.

The Canadian parents include the Stony Plain school; the Wing Commander, Guy Gibson, VC, chapter of the IOOE, Ottawa; Eastwood College Institute, Kitchener; Ontario First United Church; Junior Women's Association, Lethbridge; Mrs. Keith S. Rogers of Charlottetown; Sunny Brae Dairy Ltd., Duncan, B.C.—which donates all its profits to support a total of 14 USC foster-children; Thomas J. Johnstone, Toronto real estate man who has two children at Ballar Illam plus six more in other homes; four Victoria, B.C., families who clubbed together to adopt one child and then could only find a way to pay the money by instalments; and an unidentified high school teacher, a retired civil servant and a chemical engineer.

LETTERS FROM CANADA
Foster-parents write chatty letters about themselves to their adopted Indian children and send family photographs and Christmas gifts—bicycles, dolls, picture books, toys and clothes. Because Indian customs duty on Canadian presents is high, most of the gifts now are bought in India for the parents by the warden of the home.

The children, in turn, write letters in Tamil for the warden to translate and mail to Canada. All know about Canada, and on the walls are colored postcards of Montreal as well as pictures of Prime Minister Nehru, Mohandas Gandhi and Dr. Hiteshmanova.

The children's day begins at 5 a.m. At 6:30 they join in 15 minutes of morning prayers, a distinction being made among Christian, Hindu or Moslem.

From 6:45 until breakfast at 8 they spin thread from raw cotton which they sell to the village to be woven into shirtings. Breakfast consists of kanji, a type of porridge; chappati, wheat flour pan-cakes; and Canadian powdered milk. Lunch is rice, curry, eard and pickles.

They spend four hours in the morning and three in the afternoon at the village government school, where many of the home's children top the class. Special classes in English are given in the home before supper, which resembles lunch.

After school they play ball or on the home's slides, swings and see-saws, look after the vegetable garden, or do chores inside. Supper is at 8 p.m. and lights are out an hour later.

COLDWELL VISITED
In January the home was visited by former CCF leader M. J. Coldwell, who headed a United Nations mission to India, and in March by Dr. Hiteshmanova. Her annual visit is a major event. She personally talks to every child and they greet her with posters of welcome, songs and dances, and perform a play in English.

As the children grow up the problem of their future arises. Ganesan wants to study medicine in Canada. Vasanthi, 8, adopted by the Lethbridge church group, also wants to be a doctor; 11-year-old Jagannathan, sponsored by Johnstone, hopes to be a collector, Indian equivalent of a mayor.

Meanwhile two boys are to be transferred to a USC-sponsored vocational training centre in Madras this summer. A girl's vocational school also is planned.

PRETTY DECOR

Golden yellow blooms of early spring will set the theme for the "Daffodil Tea" to be held Saturday afternoon under the sponsorship of Edna Chapter, No. 33, Order of the Eastern Star.

The social hall in the Masonic Temple, setting for the annual spring event, will be artistically decorated with daffodils and other brightly colored flowers by convener, Mrs. John Henney and Mrs. Sam Dunn, with the assistance of their committee. Special attention will be given to a pretty and novel table decor.

Mrs. W. E. Jackson, associate matron, and Mrs. Lance Rafferty are in charge of "Daffodil Tea" arrangements. Worthy matron, Mrs. R. B. Cox, will receive guests during the tea hours from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

BAKE SALE

Featured attractions will include the sale of home baking by Mrs. O. A. Bless; candy under the direction of Mrs. Robert Sharp and a "Green-Thumb" stall convener by Mrs. J. A. Gurnes. There will also be a draw for a door prize.

Kitchen activities will be under the supervision of Mrs. A. D. McCune and Mrs. E. D. Clark while Mrs. J. T. Langridge will be in charge of serving and other table details.

TRAVELLERS' DELIGHT

BY ALICE ALDEN

Wool knits are more accommodating than ever, especially when you travel light. Here is a day-to-evening ensemble that has myriad uses. The sheath dress, alone with its flattering peg-top skirt and self belt is a wonderful "after five" cocktail and dance dress. A lace knit yoke extends into neat cap sleeves. For daytime wear, the cover-up jacket in the new waist length is dressed up with the same lace motif as the dress yoke. Beautiful in blue, champagne, black or white.

JUBILEE YEAR

Summerland Women's Institute Will Host District Rally May 11

SUMMERLAND — An invitation has gone out to all Women's Institutes in the Okanagan-Similkameen district to attend the spring rally to be held in Summerland in the Youth Centre on Monday, May 11. This is the Jubilee year for Summerland W.I. and the 50th birthday party is to be observed during the gathering. Local members are looking forward with pleasure to entertaining some 200 women from the various centres from Oryama to the border and in the Similkameen.

Mrs. J. H. Blackey of Westbank, district president, will preside. Other members of the district, executive who will be taking active parts in the annual meeting are Mrs. R. C. Palmer, Okanagan Mission, secretary; directors, Mrs. Potchey, Oryama, Mrs. Venables, Okanagan Centre and Mrs. H. C. Whitaker, Summerland.

PROVINCIAL PRESIDENT
Mrs. Decker of Pemberton Meadows, the provincial president, will be present.

As well as this, it is interesting to know that Mrs. Gordon Ritchie of Summerland, a B.C. delegate to the ACWW in Edinburgh will be attending, almost the day before she leaves for the Old Country. Others who will attend the ACWW from this district are Mrs. Sandy Fenwick of Summerland; Mrs. R. C. Palmer, Okanagan Mission, Miss Corinne Matheson, Okanagan Mission and Mrs. J. H. Blackey of Westbank.

Miss Matheson will represent Newfoundland since this province was not sending enough delegates to make up its quota.

GUEST SPEAKER
Chester Lyons of the Department of Recreation, who is in charge of special projects for the Parks Branch, will be the speaker. Mr. Lyons is a well-known author and commentator. His book "Milestones in Ogoogo Land" has been widely circulated.

Mrs. Whitaker is the general convener of the rally; Mrs. Gordon Ritchie is convener of the luncheon; Peachland Institute will serve tea. Mrs. Whitaker, Mrs. Gordon McArthur, Mrs. G. C. Harper and Mrs. Anton Holm comprise the luncheon committee.

GREETING FROM REEVE
Reeve F. E. Atkinson will bring greetings from the municipality welcoming the visitors to Summerland. Penticton W.I. will respond to the address of welcome.

Other executive members of Summerland W.I. assisting to entertain are Mrs. A. C. Fleming, Mrs. H. R. McLarty and Mrs. E. M. Tait.

Cooking With Gas to Be Demonstrated Here

Proof that the modern man can cook, and often excel in this skill most generally associated with the housewife, will be demonstrated this evening at the cooking school to be held in the Penticton High School auditorium by the Inland-Natural Gas Co., Ltd.

Iced-Cold Butter Object of Research

EDMONTON (CP) — Ice-cold butter that will spread easily on fresh bread is the object of research at the University of Alberta.

The dairy science department has a miniature machine for making butter by the "continuous process" method. So far the machine, which resembles the most modern commercial units, is being used to look into the principles involved, said Prof. F. W. Wood, who built the machine.

Eventually, it is hoped, a way can be found to "improve the plasticity of butter so it would have better spreading properties at refrigerator temperatures," he added.

The butter research is being financed by the federal agriculture department.

SCIENTIFIC STUDY
Working with Professor Wood is Dr. John M. de Man, who has been doing post-graduate work in the department for four years.

Dr. de Man's work has been "a fundamental study of the physical properties of butter and the practical application of this knowledge to the spreading of butter with particular attention to continuously-made butter."

For this work Dr. de Man already has received two special awards from the Alberta Dairy-men's Association.

The butter-making machine is only one of numerous pieces of apparatus in the department. Complete equipment is available for the processing of market milk, cheese and ice cream.

All the machines are on a small scale, enabling the department to house an "entire dairy industry in miniature" in one large laboratory.

Leather Belts High, Handsome for Spring

Leather belts are riding high, wide and handsome this spring as women re-discover their figures in the latest fashions. With full shoulders and skirts set off by neatly cinched waists, the belt is an important accessory of the new feminine look.

Belt boundaries have moved up closer to the ribs. A solid-colored leather belt draped high on the figure meets a short-waisted pull-over top to join a two-piece dress. High-waisted skirts call for mid-riff bands.

BULKY COATS
Bulky spring coats are pulled in sharply by the widest of high-riding leathers. Extremes in shapely belts run to four inches or more.

Cummerbunds abound in smooth and suede leathers. Some are pleated all around, others are gathered at the sides, while still others are simple and unadorned.

Solid-colored leather belts contrast with the prints that bloom in the spring. Brightly toned smooth and brushed leathers accent the dominant colors in a print dress. A belt unites spring separates into a team, or restores a waistline to classic early season checked suits.

Special treatments like grained or embossed leather enhance the new circles. Buckles of gold and silver focus interest on the latest hoops.

MULTITUDE OF COLORS
For the woman who hasn't made up her mind about the new fashions, the spring belt emphasis is a goddess. Dozens of styles in a multitude of colors and leathers are available. A good choice will convert last year's dress into this season's outfit.

This is a big belt year, and there are styles for all occasions — the most unusual are those for casual wear. "Hobby" belts in bright leathers are ornamented with sports car insignia, foreign coins, initials and even foreign phrases.

As the weather gets warmer, the vacationer will be setting off her suit or beach dress with a broad leather band. The combination of a white dress and black patent leather belt passed the resort test with flying colors this past winter.

Use Apples for Delicious Salad

One of the many easy ways to use apples in salad is this delicious spring tonic. Serve it with a soup and salad luncheon, or with cold meat salads.

FRESH APPLE SALAD
2 cups chopped unpeeled Winesap apple
2 cups shredded green cabbage
1/2 cup seedless raisins, rinsed and drained

About 1/2 cup French dressing
2 tablespoons grated cheddar or crumbled blue cheese
Combine apple, cabbage and raisins. Moisten with French dressing to which cheese has been added. Toss lightly and serve on crisp lettuce.

SON MISTRATED

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A couple was jailed on suspicion of child beating Tuesday after their seven-year-old son accused his father of mistreating him and pouring whiskey down his throat for refusing to eat. The youngster, James Sams, was taken to a hospital. James R. Sams, 40, was jailed with his wife, Ethel, 43. They had been arrested at a bar on drunk charges and were re-booked on the child beating complaint.

EGG TETRAZZINI

LET'S EAT

Hints on Preparing Versatile Egg Dishes

The average Canadian eats 400 eggs a year. Whether boiled, scrambled, fried or combined with other foods, the uses of eggs for any meal are almost unlimited.

"In any case", the Chef observed, "cook eggs at the lowest possible degree of temperature that will make them coagulate or become firm."

AN EXCEPTION

"When cooked too fast, the food-value is often impaired because, valuable egg-vitamins are devitalized and protein is made indigestible," I added. "Boiled eggs are the only exception. When cooked a short time in rapidly boiling water protein will not be overcooked or the vitamins affected."

"To make sure hard-cooked eggs have no 'green rings', cover them with cold water. Cover the pot and bring water to a rapid boil, cooking rapidly for 10 minutes."

"Immediately immerse in cold water to prevent further cooking and to make shelling easy."

TOMORROW'S DINNER
Chopped Mushroom Soup
Eggs Tetrazzini
Sliced Tomato-Cucumber Salad
Green Mayonnaise
Deep-Dish Rhubarb Pie
Coffee Tea Milk

(All measurements are level; recipes for 4 to 6)

CHOPPED MUSHROOM SOUP
Saute 2 tbs. each minced onion and green pepper in 1 1/2 tbs. butter until limp.

Add 2 tbs. rice and 1/2 c. chopped fresh mushrooms and stems. Stir in 1 qt. boiling chicken stock or 2 (10 1/2-oz.) cans condensed chicken broth and 1 1/2 cans boiling water.

Add 1 c. diced celery, 1/2 tsp. salt, a few grains mace and 1/2 tsp. white pepper.

Simmer-boil until celery and rice are tender.

Garnish with chopped parsley; pass toasted French bread.

EGGS TETRAZZINI

Cook 8-oz. spaghetti according to directions. Drain.

Meanwhile prepare the following sauce: Melt 1/2 c. butter or margarine.

Add 1 c. diced celery, 2 tbs. chopped parsley and 1 crushed, peeled small section garlic. Simmer 5 min. Do not brown.

Blend in 1 tbs. flour. Add 1 1/2 c. milk all at once; cook-stir until thickened.

Add 1/2 lb. diced sharp Cheddar cheese, 2 tbs. Worcestershire sauce and 1/2 tsp. sherry flavoring (optional). Stir until cheese melts. Keep warm.

Meantime hard-cook 8 eggs. Cut in eighths or quarters; set aside several pieces of garnish; add balance to the sauce with 1/2 tsp. salt.

Heat to serving temperature; do not boil.

Spread the spaghetti in a heated, large, deep bowl. Pour Tetrazzini sauce over it.

Garnish with reserved hard-cooked egg pieces, sliced stuffed olives and grated cheese.

Woman Appreciates Canadian Hospitality

COBOURG, Ont. (CP) — A woman who was born in England, became a German citizen through marriage, and later regained her British nationality, now is a happy resident in Canada.

Mrs. Alwine Franke, the mother of three sons, recently wrote a London newspaper telling of the hospitality she has received here particularly from neighbor Aylmer Hamden.

Her letter, which appeared in the Daily Sketch under the headline "Who'd Do This For A Pal?", read in part:

"It's been a particularly hard winter and my husband, who has to begin a 40-mile journey to work every morning at 5:30, found it almost impossible to start his car with temperatures below zero."

"But our neighbor (Mr. Hamden) has been standing there with cables ready to boost our car battery from his own car."

"I wonder how many people would voluntarily leave a warm bed at five in the morning to face biting wind and snow to help a neighbor?"

MARRIED IN GERMANY

Mrs. Franke married a German while visiting in Germany shortly before the outbreak of the Second World War and was not allowed to return to England. Her husband was killed in action early in the war and she was left to bring up their two children, Michael, now 17, and Christopher, now 15.

After living in Leipzig and Berlin Mrs. Franke went to Steisslingen near the Swiss border and remained there until liberated by the French. In 1945 she and the boys, though suffering from malnutrition, began the trek back to England. They were able to get occasional rides with passing vehicles but most of the trip was done on foot.

Mrs. Franke, her two children and Mr. Franke, whom she married in 1947, later became naturalized British subjects. The Frankes now have another son, Robin, 8.

GREEN MAYONNAISE FROM THE CHEF

To 1 c. mayonnaise add 1/4 c. chopped parsley, 1/4 c. fine chopped tender spinach leaves and 1/4 c. scallions chopped with 1" of the green tops.

Stir in 1/2 tsp. minced fresh or 1/4 tsp. powdered dill. Beat thoroughly by hand or leave in blender for 1 min.

Circle Catering for Two Dinners in May

Mizpah - Companions Circle of the Penticton United Church Women's Federation are catering for two banquets in May with Mrs. Harold Greenslade in charge of arrangements.

The forthcoming dinners and plans dealing with the Friendship Tea April 25 were of major interest at the April meeting held in the church hall with president Mrs. Guy Brock in the chair.

Members visited 42 sick and shut-ins during the past month.

The meeting adjourned for afternoon tea served by Mrs. Greenslade and Mrs. A. J. Ellis.

Old Clothing Taken To Dance for USC

A variation of a "hard times" dance was recently held by a group in St. Laurent, P.Q. Instead of wearing old clothing, each guest brought one good used garment to be donated to the Unitarian Service Committee.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Women's Section of British Legion Will Elect New Chairman in May

BY M. MCINTYRE HOOD
Special to Penticton Herald

LONDON... For the first time since the Women's section of the British Legion was organized in 1921, there will this year be an election for the high post of national chairman of this active women's organization. This has never happened before, because in the past 38 years, the chairman has always been elected by acclamation. This year, however, there are three names going on the ballot paper, and the three grey-haired women who are involved feel more than a little embarrassed at this departure from custom.

The first national chairman of the Women's Section of the British Legion was the late Lady Edward Spencer Churchill. During the 20 years for which she held that office, no other woman allowed her name to go forward. When on her retirement, Lady Apsley, mother of Lord Bathurst was nominated for the vacant chair. She was elected unopposed for six successive years.

WITHDREW NAME

In 1948, when the Countess of Coventry, who had been nominated, learned that Dame Reginald Evans was standing for the vacant chairmanship, she hastily withdrew her name to avoid a contest.

Next month, Dame Reginald Evans is resigning the chairmanship after having held it for 11 years. When the 2,000 delegates from all over the United Kingdom meet at the Royal Albert Hall for their national conference on May 6, they will find three candidates standing for the office.

THREE CANDIDATES

The three candidates whose names will appear on the ballot paper are: Lady Brooke-Popham, 58-year-old widow of a former air chief marshal, Mrs. Aubrey Coker, 61-year-old widow of a Royal Artillery major, Miss Bronwen Smedley-Crooke, 51-year-old city of Birmingham Magistrate.

Lady Brooke-Popham joined the Women's Section of the Legion in 1927, when her husband was governor of Kenya. She was president of the Kenya Colony Branch.

Mrs. Coker joined in 1931, and is still president of the Leicester Branch.

Slight complications have now arisen between these two, because they are firm friends. Says Lady Brooke-Popham, "Mrs. Coker is an absolute darling, and would make a very good and able chairman."

KELLY'S CORNER

PUNCH IMLACH, moonlight gambler of Toronto's beleaguered Leafs, had another ace stuffed up his sleeve yesterday. Mayor Harry Veiner of Medicine Hat, living up to his promise, handed over to the Toronto players a cheque for $1,600.

The cheque, which represents 100 potatoes to every member of the team, is supposedly a reward for the Leafs' triumph over the Boston Bruins.

Subsequent events, however, could make this the toughest hundred bucks the boys ever earned.

With a move that should have Benedict Arnold turning in his grave in deep concern over the possible loss of his all-time treachery record, Veiner made the cheque payable to Imlach.

Imlach in turn, compounding the felony, glibly announced to the team that he wouldn't endorse the cheque for payment to the rightful owners until they had disposed of a group of inept pucksters commonly known as the Montreal Canadiens.

This should prove no more difficult than scaling Mount Everest in a bathing suit with a package of Chiclets for supplies so it is to be hoped that Toronto's finest didn't have the money spent prematurely.

To us the natural conclusion of this affair if the Leafs should lose will see Imlach endorsing the cheque to the Canadian Pacific Airlines as his contribution towards a one-way ticket for the team to Lower Slobovia.

PENTICTON REJOICE — We have stumbled out from under the shadow of the odious little Tank Town into the bright sunlight. We have arrived.

With the advent of big-time pro wrestling here Saturday, Pentiction has become a city of the first magnitude.

Responsible for this show of confidence in our destiny, are the local Jaycees and one Cliff Parker, Vancouver wrestling entrepreneur.

With the scheduling of such head-line pachyderms as the Atomic Blondes and the Scott Brothers, only one course left open to us is to pack the joint.

While it is admitted that vaudeville long ago turned up its toes and passed to the great beyond, in recent years wrestling has done an excellent job of taking its place.

Right in the forefront of the many exponents of this new branch of show business are the Atomic Blondes. Not only are they pretty, but they practice some of the most malicious mayhem since the Romans produced "Kitty Bar the Door" starring Leo the Lion and a cast of thousands of Christians.

For those citizens who have viewed these modern Goliaths on TV comes the chance to see and hear them in the flesh.

This extravaganza will take place at the Pentiction High School Coliseum — oops, Gymnasium, curtain time is at 8 p.m. and in view of the limited number of seats one would do well to obtain duets well in advance.

A word of warning might be in order for those attending — watchout for falling bodies as these thwarted thespians, perhaps influenced by the present day trend, have been known to put each other into orbit on occasion.

WELL, THE BUBBLE has definitely burst. We see that Norwich has finally dropped a league game after posting 17 consecutive wins.

A costly loss it is too, as in dropping the close 3-2 decision to Bury Tuesday, Norwich virtually lost all hope of promotion to the Second Division.

This seems a strange paradox as Norwich a Third Division side, spent most of the year knocking over the cream of the crop in the First Division and only just missed playing for the F.A. cup at Wembley.

However, all was not lost, as they did move from 18th to 4th place in the Third Division, which is no mean feat in itself.

Should they continue the type of play that they showed this year there is no doubt that next season will see the realization of Norwich City's long cherished dream of promotion.

Cage Playoffs Tighten Up As Fellers Wins

By GREG MACDONALD

Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP) — Ottawa Fellers, their backs against the wall, will be out to tie their best-of-five Canadian senior A basketball final against Southern Alberta Chinooks tonight at two games apiece.

Down 2-0 in games and facing elimination Wednesday night, the flu-ridden Fellers came to life and whipped the Chinooks 77-59 to stay in contention for the championship. If Fellers deadlock the series tonight, the fifth and deciding game would be played here Saturday.

The Lethbridge team held a slim 19-18 point lead at the end of the first quarter Wednesday night and were ahead 25-23 midway through the second when Fellers took the lead and never looked back.

LED AT HALF TIME — Ottawa led 36-28 at half time, 51-44 at the end of the third quarter and at one point during the final quarter held a 19-point lead.

For the third straight night, big six-foot-six Feller centre Kevin McGuire, struck by the flu last week, played the game with a slight fever. Star Ottawa forward George Seymour missed his second game because of the flu.

But it didn't seem to bother Ed Laschuk and McGuire as they struck for 15 and 12 points, respectively.

Kier, voted the most valuable player in the Ottawa city league this year, may be lost to Fellers for tonight's game. He sprained an ankle Wednesday night when he tripped over an Alberta player late in the final quarter.

SCORED 24 POINTS — One again it was Bob Bradley, six-foot-seven Chinook centre, who did the most damage. He scored 24 points to lead both teams in scoring for the third straight night.

"The boys were really up for this one," said Feller coach Dave Stothart. "They had their backs against the wall and they're out to even the series."

About 700 fans watched Wednesday night's game but a smaller crowd is predicted for tonight because of televised Stanley Cup hockey.

Blue Bombers Sign Charlie Shepherd

WINNIPEG (CP) — The West's top punter, Charlie Shepherd, will be back with Winnipeg Blue Bombers for 1959.

Club officials announced Tuesday that Shepherd, a hard-hitting fullback, has returned his signed contract.

Shepherd, a star of Bombers' 1958 Grey Cup victory over Hamilton Tiger-Cats, set a record in the Western Interprovincial Football Union last season for most yards on punts, with 6,324. He also holds the WIFU record for the longest punt—82 yards, set in 1957.

The 25-year-old fullback had the best punting average in 1958 at 44.2 yards a kick, and wound up second in the league scoring to Saskatchewan's Jack Hill with 76 points on 11 touchdowns and 10 singles.

Shepherd, a graduate of North Texas State, played with Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League before joining Bombers in 1957.

Vernon by Regina in 4-1 Win—Whitby Next

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Vernon Canadians beat Regina

Caps 4-1 Wednesday night to win the Western Canada championship and advance to the Allan Cup final against Whitby (Ont.) Dunlops.

Vernon's victory in Regina gave the Canadians the best-of-seven series four games to one. Whitby entered the Dominion final by beating Hull (Que.) Legion 10-3 Wednesday night in Whitby to take the Eastern Canada final 2-0.

The best-of-seven Dominion final will be played in Toronto and is scheduled to start Sunday afternoon.

In Regina Canadians opened up a 2-0 lead in the first period, split two goals with Caps in the second and notched the only goal in the final twenty minutes.

Art Hart, Merv Bidoski, Russ Kowalechuk and Odie Lowe were the Vernon marksmen. Pete Petrovitch got the only Regina goal early in the second period.

Hal Gordon was outstanding in the Vernon nets. He blocked 32 Regina shots, 21 of them in the first period. Regina's Ed Babiuk stopped 28 shots. Referee Bing Juckes handed out 10 minor penalties, five to each club.

Al Pickard, life member of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, presented the Patton Cup, emblematic of senior hockey supremacy in Western Canada, to Vernon captain Willie Schmidt.

Vernon went ahead 1-0 at 14:58 of the first period while playing a man short. Kowalechuk was in the penalty box when Hart broke away after a faceoff in the Vernon end and beat Babiuk with a backhand shot.

Bidoski made it 2-0 just before the period ended. He took a pass from Schmidt and picked the top left-hand corner of the net with a slap shot.

Caps cut the lead in half after 41 seconds of the second period when Petrovitch broke in on Gordon after taking Bernie Grebinsky's pass and scored with a backhand.

Canadians went ahead 3-1 at 7:06 when Kowalechuk flipped in Lowe's passout from behind the net.

Lowe sent Vernon in front 4-1 early in the third period when he broke away at mid-ice, raced in and beat Babiuk with a 30-foot slap shot.

Canadians went into a defensive shell after taking a three-goal lead and gave Caps little chance to get an attack organized. Bill Hryciuk broke in on the net.

Toronto Confident But Habs Favored

TORONTO (CP) — Coach Toe Blake of Montreal Canadiens said today that Maurice Richard will not play in tonight's Stanley Cup final against Toronto Maple Leafs.

"The Rocket has a pulled groin muscle and he won't be in tonight's lineup," Blake told The Canadian Press. "The Rocket himself says he feels he is not in condition to play," Blake added.

By W. R. WHEATLEY Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs and Montreal Canadiens move closer tonight to the payoff in the Stanley Cup final—a series that has taken on something of an anomalous aspect.

Canadiens are the champions, they lead the best-of-seven showdown 2-1 and are 8-to-5 favorites to win tonight's fourth game—the same odds that prevailed Tuesday when they dropped a 3-2 overtime decision. Yet coach Toe Blake is doing the heavy worrying.

Injuries on his club have sent Blake into periods of deep pondering. The setback Tuesday was another jolt.

On the other hand, Leafs manager-coach Punch Imlach is at the wing-flapping stage and ready to crow again on signal.

Imlach is as sure as there's a scoreboard in Maple Leaf Gardens that it will again flash a Leaf victory tonight. "We'll be tougher," he promised.

Casting about for something to brighten his outlook, Blake mused Wednesday night: "I've got a hunch that the Rocket can help us win this series."

The 37-year-old Maurice (Rocket) Richard has seen only limited action so far in this series, which marked his return to the game after a mid-season injury.

"I'm not in shape," said Richard, who last Saturday pulled a groin muscle to add to his miseries. "There are younger fellows on the team who are in better shape than I am."

He gave no indication whether he felt he would be able to take on a little more work tonight.

Held Hitting Hot Pace For Cleveland Indians

Associated Press Sports Writer
The inevitable is getting a bit closer in the American League pennant chase. The world champion New York Yankees are crowding first place—and they might be there now except for Woody Held, a kid, manager Casey Stengel reluctantly traded away.

Held, now 27, was wrapped up in that June, 1957, swap that also sent Billy Martin to Kansas City for Harry Simpson (and, incidentally, R. Y. Duren). Although not much of a percentage hitter, Held was an infielder-outfielder, a guy ready made for Casey's multiple defence schemes, and showed promise of power.

"They tell me around this league that they know how to pitch to that fella," said Casey with a snort. "But I notice they forget to do it every once in a while."

ARE FORGETTING
They've been forgetting frequently the last couple of days. Held, traded to Cleveland last season, is hitting nothing but homers at the moment.

His third hit in 17 at bats this year was his third home run (good for seven runs) in two days and beat without Detroit 2-1 in 10 innings Wednesday. It also kept the Indians unbeaten through four games and pushed them into first place, a half-game ahead of the Yankees.

The champs, stopped only by rain so far, won their third, 3-1 at Baltimore Wednesday night, on Bobby Richardson's two-out, two-run double in the ninth. That jumped the Yankees past Chicago White Sox, who were bombed off their unbeaten kick, 10-8 by Kansas City, and slipped to third; Boston defeated Washington 7-3.

Held's homer, with two out in the 10th at Cleveland, was his second in a row off Ray Narleski, the right-hander the Indians termed washed up after trading him to Detroit. It was Narleski's second defeat, both in relief.

MELISH WON IT
Right-hander Cal McLish, Cleveland's top winner (16-6) last year, took the decision, giving up nine hits in his first appearance of the season.

A walk and Andy Carey's single set up Richardson's winning hit for the Yankees off losing reliever Jack Harshman (0-2). Whitey Ford walked six, but went all the way for New York in his 1959 debut for a six-hit victory.

SOFTBALL MEET HERE ON SUNDAY

The Senior Men's Softball League will hold a meeting Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Kiwanis Park.

Anyone interested in either playing softball or entering a team in the league are asked to attend.

The league will elect a new slate of officers and they are hoping for a really good turnout so that the league can get busy and make this the best year yet.

Last year the league consisted of four teams but it is hoped to expand this year to at least six.

There is a trophy for the league winner and if the calibre of play keeps improving it is hoped that soon Penticon will be competing in the provincial playoffs.

In addition to the regular league schedule, the league featured several exhibition games last year and it is hoped that even more teams can be brought in this season.

Don't forget the date, Sunday afternoon, 2 o'clock, at Kiwanis Park.

OLD COUNTRY SOCCER

Soccer Teams Barred From Approaching Schoolboys

By M. McINTYRE HOOD

SPECIAL TO THE HERALD
LONDON—English football managers and scouts who have been in the habit of making approaches to soccer schoolboys have been served notice that the Football Association is not going to tolerate this illegal practice. The mighty Wolverhampton Wanderers have been fined £250 by the F.A. and one of their scouts severely reprimanded by an inquiry commission for what is termed an illegal approach to a 15-year-old schoolboy's father. The commission was acting on a complaint from the Manchester Schools F.A. that a scout of the Wolves had called at the boy's home and made proposals to his father for his son's future.

The commission's ruling and fine has brought an immediate roar of indignation from Stan Cullis, the Wolverhampton manager. He called for a complete showdown on the chase for boy stars, and charged that some clubs have even made payments to fathers for first options on these boys. He issued a demand for concerted Football Association and League action against all such schoolboy poachers. "Announce that they will be put out of the game for good," he roared. "That will stop it."

ABERDEEN IN FINAL

Although faced with the stark danger of relegation to the second division of the Scottish League, Aberdeen have rocketed into the final round for the Scottish Cup. They won the right to meet St. Mirren in the final at Hampden Park on April 25 by a 1-0 victory over Third Lanark in the replay of their semi-final match. Davidson, at centre forward, scored a magnificent goal in the first half to win the game for the Dons.

With three games to play, and against the strong Hearts, Rangers and Motherwell teams, Aberdeen have a tough struggle ahead to get the points necessary to escape relegation. Their chief hope is that the lowly Dunfermline may lose their two remaining games to save them from going down to the second division for the first time in 50 years.

Incidentally, two years ago, Falkirk were facing relegation but got into the cup final and eventually won the cup and then managed to secure enough points to stay in the first division. Aberdeenians are hoping that history will repeat itself.

TITLES NOW CLEAR

A spate of midweek soccer games is sorting out the title hopes in the various English Leagues, and deciding which teams will go down. Tottenham secured a valuable point in their game with Burnley, and are now fairly safe from demotion. In the second division, Liverpool lost 2-1 to Middlesbrough, and made it certain that Fulham and Sheffield Wednesday will hold the two top places and move up into the first division.

In two third division games, Brentford lost 2-0 to Southend, and Norwich could only draw 1-1 with Swindon. Loss of these points put an end of the promotion hopes of these two teams, and Plymouth and Hull will now go up to the second division.

BITS AND PIECES

The English Football League season has been extended by one week to May 9, to enable Birmingham City to complete its schedule, which was disrupted when three games were cancelled owing to the fatal attack of polio sustained by their back, Jeff Hall. . . . Preston North End have gone north to Scotland for a new inside left, and paid Dundee £8,000 for the services of Dave Sneddon. . . .

Aston Villa manager, Joe Mercer, Edinburgh Hibs. Mercer, who is has made a bid for Liverpool's transfer-listed forward, Jimmy Harrower, a former star with this player.

Tennis Feud to Fluri U.S. Davis Cup Team

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — The feud between U. S. captain Perry Jones and Ham Richardson will prove costly when the United States tries to defend the Davis Cup this year, Australia's Ashby Cooper predicted yesterday. "I don't think Richardson will play any more Davis Cup tennis, especially as long as Jones is captain," the Wimbledon champion said. "The doubles match well could be the key to the next challenge round, and I don't see how the United States can win without Richardson."

Richardson, the country's No. 1 player, bitterly protested last December when he was dropped from the singles lineup by Jones in favor of Alex Olmedo and Barry MacKay. He vowed at the time he was through with big-time tennis for good. "On his record you must rate Olmedo the No. 1 amateur in the world," Cooper, now touring with Jack Kramer's professional, said. "But I wonder how it will be with the pressure all on him and with him knowing he is supposed to win."

"Even conceding Olmedo two matches in singles, the United States may still find it hard holding the cup, although they will have to be favored."

"I believe Neale Fraser (Australia) would beat Olmedo more times than Alex could beat him. Roy Emerson is a very good player and so is Rod Laver. Either one probably could beat America's No. 2 player, if Richardson doesn't play."

"That throws the whole Davis Cup picture over to the doubles match. I doubt if there is anybody, except Richardson, who could be teamed with Olmedo and beat the Australian combination, whatever it may be."

Promoter of London Fight Steps Out

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—There has been another switch in the scheduled Floyd Patterson-Brian London heavyweight championship fight here May 1—this time the bout has a new promoter.

Cecil Rhodes, Cranford, N.J., industrialist, is out and Al Farb of Indianapolis and the Hoosier Boxing Club are in.

Arch Hindman of Hagerstown, Ind., executive secretary of the National Boxing Association, announced the switch Wednesday night.

The switch was only one of a series. The scheduled fight has been a mixup since the beginning. First it was announced for April 21 in Las Vegas. Then the date was switched to May 1. And last week the site was changed to Indianapolis.

Shortly after the announced shift here, an air of secrecy surrounded both the fighters and the bout.

Hindman gave this explanation for replacing Rhodes: "In order to get a promoter's licence in Indiana it is necessary to be a resident of the state for three years, and when Rhodes learned he couldn't qualify, he didn't want to go ahead with the show."

National Leaguers Do Well at Coast

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
Don Drysdale and Johnny Antonelli, a pair of young actors who went a long way to go no where last season, are back in business again, flashing some of the old sparkle.

Drysdale, a 22-year-old right-hander who won 17 as a National League sophomore, went west with the transplanted Dodgers last season and wound up with a 12-13 record.

Antonelli, a 27-year-old southpaw who twice has been a 20-game winner, won 16 and lost 13 when the Giants shifted to San Francisco.

Wednesday night, things were different. Antonelli gave up a run on three singles in the first inning, then blanked the Chicago Cubs on two hits the rest of the way for a 7-1 victory, his second.

SHUTS OUT CARDS

Drysdale gave up eight hits, but no runs at all, squaring his record at 1-1 as the Dodgers beat St. Louis Cardinals 5-0.

In the only other NL game, Cincinnati Redlegs handed Pittsburgh Pirates their fifth defeat, 10-5.

Orlando Cepeda, last year's top NL rookie, blasted his first home run of the year in a two-run fourth off loser Moe Drabowsky. Cepeda then hit a two-run homer and Alou followed with a solo shot in the fifth. Alou also singled home a run.

Drysdale won his game with solo homer help from Don Demeter and Jim Baxes. The Dodgers put it away against Larry Jackson (0-1) with a two-run fourth.

The Pirates, getting a 3-0 lead on Don Honk's first-inning homer, twice blew leads, falling behind for keeps when the Reds chased Bob Friend to his second loss in a five-run sixth inning. Vada Pinson, Jerry Lynch and Ed Bailey counted seven runs with homers for Cincinnati. Joe Nuxhall was the winner.

PLAYOFF VETERAN

Ted Lindsay of the Chicago Black Hawks has played the most playoff games, 116 in 13 series. All of them were with the Detroit Red Wings.

SERIES RECORD
The Boston Red Sox have a better percentage record in the World Series than the Yankees. The Sox have lost only once in six tries for an average of .833.

Sugar Ray Given Another Ultimatum

HAGERSTOWN, Ind. (AP)—

The National Boxing Association threatened today to lift Sugar Ray Robinson's middleweight title unless he signs for a title defense by the end of next week.

Arch Hindman, NBA executive secretary, said 13 members of the executive committee voted unanimously to set an April 25 deadline for a signing and a June 30 fight deadline. Hindman demanded action from Robinson a month ago.

Hindman said 12 committee-men favor Carmen Basilio, former champion, as the challenger, and one favored Spider Webb as a "new face."

If Robinson ignores the ultimatum, Hindman said the committee will propose a title match between Basilio and Gene Fullmer, another former champion.

By HUGH PORTEOUS
(Oliver Herald Bureau)

President Ernie Hill of the Oliver Rotary Club brought more than a report of the district conference home to the Oliver Rotarians when he returned on Tuesday night. He brought some silverware, too. Ernie, as chairman of the district attendance committee, had the pleasant, if somewhat embarrassing duty at Tuesday's concluding luncheon in Wenatchee of announcing that his own club had won the trophy for the best attendance at the conference. Ernie was then presented with the cup by Governor Jesse Widby. Thirteen Oliver couples attended.

The concern of Oliver residents over the decision of the federal government to go ahead with the building of the Post Office on the Fairview Road does not seem to be as wide spread as recent reports over the air have indicated. Vic Fairweather told us this morning that he is quite certain that 75 per cent of the people are quite satisfied with the choice. He added that the site chosen was that recommended by the Regional Planning Division of the Department of Municipal Affairs.

The Rev. Ted Somers was over one day last week checking up on his summer home on Osoyoos. Ted and Bunnie aren't going to use it this summer and he told up he had let it to Vic Gregory of the Oliver Sawmill. Vic and Sadie are building a home of their own nearby and will be summer tenants while their place is under construction.

The Super Valu parking lot will be a busy place on Saturday afternoon when Paul Eisenbut's Safety Committee of the Oliver Jaycees are holding a Scotchline Day. He urges that all bicycle owners in the district have this safety device attached free. For a nominal sum owners of motor vehicles can have the same service.

Harry Lyndon and Fred Clayton called in the other day to tell us how much the Legion appreciated the help given by the wives and daughters of veterans in preparing and serving the annual Vimy Day dinner last week. He said that nine veterans of Vimy stood up and "Here sir" when the roll was called and the rum issued.

The number of electrical manufacturing companies in Canada (477 in 1957) has doubled since 1944.

Kinsmen Busy With Many Spring Projects

OLIVER — The Oliver Kinsmen are busy with their many community spring projects.

Presently underway is the re-pairing of the tennis courts with work parties held on Sunday. The courts will be put in good condition for community use this year. The club is drawing up an artist's conception for the planning of the Community Park to enable proper growth and development of this area. Also on the agenda is the painting of the interior of the new Guide Hall.

This active group is taking part in the tuberculosis survey this month. It will be sponsoring the Salk Vaccine Free Clinic.

On the social side, four delegates and their wives are planning to attend the convention in Trail in the near future. They are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kinsmen, Mr. and Mrs. Al Seiben, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Forbes and Mr. and Mrs. Bob McFadden. The club is making motel and hotel reservations in Oliver for a rest stop for convention-goers from Vancouver and northern B.C. as this is the midway point of travel.

BLOSSOMTIME DANCE
The big annual Kinsmen Blossomtime Dance is being held Friday, April 24, at the Community Hall. Chairman Doug Taylor and committeemen Don Woods, Bob McFadden, and Chuck Harvey are assuring all ticket holders of a wonderful evening of dancing to the music of the Ken Almond Orchestra plus two floor shows of "imported" talent.

Tentative program calls for dancing from 9 to 1 p.m., followed by the floor show. Dinner will be served at 12 p.m. and another entertaining floor show at 1 a.m. Tickets are now on sale and selling fast at the Oliver Variety Store.

Club's Funds to Buy Machine For Hospital

OLIVER — The Oliver Activity Club held their regular bi-monthly meeting this week in the form of a social evening, starting with dinner at the Reopel Hotel. A short business meeting was held.

The group was pleased to present a cheque to St. Martin's Hospital for the purchase of the new suction machine which has been their spring project.

The club will again be in charge of the Queen's Contest for April Fundraiser this year. Mrs. Harold Ruck, Mrs. Doug Love, Mrs. Ron Bonnett, and Mrs. Bob Shannon are on the committee. The May Day Queen's crown will be made by the group. Train bearers and flower girls will be chosen for the royal party.

The members will take part in the tuberculosis survey, having chosen a zone which they will canvas on May 14.

The annual social evening was enjoyed by the 15 members attending.

OLIVER BOWLING

Enthusiasm knew no limit at the Oliver Bowling Alley Saturday night when the Junior Small Fry league rolled playoff games to determine the season champions.

Competing were the two top teams of Larry Raincock and Jack Bennest, with the Raincock team winning the league and taking top scoring honors.

Marguarite Smithers for the girls rolled a high single of 217 and totaled 681. Robert Silber-nagel doubled honors with a 268 for high single and 776 for the four game total.

The league is in the age group of 10 to 13 years and there were plenty of 200 games to show the calibre of play.

On the winning team were Mike Newman, Jody Harvey, Larry Raincock, Lynne McFadden and Robert Silber-nagel. Also at the alleys this week in regular Ladies' league Monday board banned four and cut 38.

THE PENTICTON HERALD

Thursday, April 16, 1959

night the Clipperettes rolled, top scores of 691 for the team single and 2722 for the triple. Norma Bray marked up a 618 for individual high three while Marg Huddelstone took high single with a 253.

Tuesday night the Jolly Five team went all out taking both team and individual honors. Team scores of 1062 for the single and 2718 for the triple were top while Jean Beach turned in three beautiful games for a total of 818. Her high single was a big 350.

Tuberculosis Survey Set up

OLIVER — The organizational meeting for the tuberculosis survey was held this week at the Health Unit, with a good turnout of civic representatives.

The town and surrounding districts were divided into zones with each organization taking a zone which they will work when the survey opens in May.

53 MOVIES CUT

NEW YORK (AP)—New York State snipped spicy bits from 53 films last year. The division of motion pictures of the New York State board of education has the power to ban a film on the ground of obscenity. None was banned last year. In 1957 the board banned four and cut 38.

Deaths

JOHNSON—Swain John Johnson, 840 White Avenue, passed away suddenly Monday, April 13th, 1959, at the age of 60 years. Survived by his loving wife, Mary; five sons, Norman, Vancouver; Calvin, Kimberley; Edward, Helmer and Ronald, all at home; one brother, Helmer at Lundar, Man., two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Campbell, Winnipeg; Mrs. Della Morrison, Lundar, Man.; two step brothers, Bert and Lloyd Hokanson of Vancouver; one step sister, Mrs. Anna Sergeant of Victoria and his stepfather, Bert Hokanson, Lundar, Man. Funeral services will be held in the Penticton Funeral Chapel on Friday, April 17th, at 2:00 p.m. with Rev. C. Beiderwieden officiating. R. J. Pollock and J. V. Carberry, directors.

WE WISH to take this opportunity to thank all those people, especially the doctors and staff of the Penticton Hospital, for their acts of kindness during the illness and death of the late Mr. Harry Wilson. A special thank you to Mr. and Mrs. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie and the Masonic Lodge—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Couch, Executors.

IT IS with the sincerest gratitude that we express to our many friends, our appreciation of their kindly expressions of esteem in the floral tokens and words of sympathy which came to us in our bereavement in the loss of a beloved wife and mother. These tangible expressions of sympathy have helped to lighten our burden of sorrow. William Riley and family.

BEHIND THE SCREEF

French Comic Gives His View of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Jacques Tati's funny French films have been noted for their incisive slants on people and places. Here is his view of Hollywood on his first visit:

"The place seems so unreal. Even the shops with their glittering facades appear to be only the fronts of movie sets. I am surprised that they have backs to them. Every day that I leave my hotel, I expect to come back and find that it has been taken down and another set put up in its place."

The tall French comic found the people were warm and friendly. What about reports that he might make a movie here? "I have had talks about it," he remarked. "But I don't believe it would ever be possible."

"I like to shoot slowly. It is not terribly expensive, because I use a small crew. But I do not like to be rushed. If I want to get the right shot of a dog in the street, I will stay there all day until the dog does exactly what I want it to."

"They don't understand that here any more. You've got schedules, schedules, schedules. If a director doesn't come in on schedule, he is in trouble."

Tati explained that he takes about 2½ months to make a movie, and spends many months in preparation. My Uncle, winner of this year's Oscar as the best foreign movie, took longer, because it was filmed in two languages.

He is a one-man production gang, since he writes, directs, produces and stars in the films. "It is the only way I can control my own destiny," he explained. "When I have tried to work for producers, I would have them calling every evening to ask how many shots I had made. 'What? Only one!' they would yell. 'How can you do that to me!'"

WOULD BAN NUDISTS

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas State Senator Ray Roberts introduced a bill Tuesday to fine anyone attending a nudist camp $500. He said such camps have a "damaging effect on the morals of the youth of this state."

Opening lead—jack of spades.

The Italian team gave a magnificent performance in slam bidding. They played rings around the Americans when the question of bidding or avoiding a slam arose.

The Italians contracted for eleven slams in the course of the 156-board match. They made nine of them. In the two deals they were defeated the contracts were sound, but the adverse distribution was such that the slams could not be made. Not once did the Italian team fail to bid a slam that the United States team bid and made.

The American record suffered greatly by comparison. The United States representatives bid nine slams. Four of them were defeated—all hopeless contracts. Italy gained 35 IMPs in the 14 deals where a slam was bid by one side or the other. Italy defeated America in the match by 50 IMPs. The slam record speaks volumes.

One of the slams bid by Forquet-Siniscalco and not reached by the American pair is shown here. The strange (to us) four diamond bid by Forquet initiated the slam effort. It guaranteed, within their partnership, heart support.

The four notrump bid was not Blackwood, a convention this pair rarely uses. It asked Siniscalco to further identify his hand for slam purposes. The five spade response showed spade control and willingness to cooperate with Forquet's two slam tries. It did not identify the number of aces held, except by inference.

Twelve tricks were made for a 1,210-point score (Fry had doubled). At the other table the American scored 480 points. The 730-point gain earned Italy 6 IMPs.

(By a peculiar quirk of scoring, the double made no difference. A gain by a team of 500 to 740 points is worth 6 IMPs in international match point scoring. Had the slam not been doubled, Italy would have gained exactly 500 points.)

The American pair bid the North-South cards as follows:

East South West North

Mexico Deports Flying U.S. Bank Robber

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico gave the bum's rush Wednesday to Frank Lawrence Sprenz, a flying American bank robber who is on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted men.

Two immigration agents were driving the fast-traveling, fast-talking holdup artist to the U.S.-Mexican border to hand him over to American authorities.

Captured Monday as he was fishing off the Yucatan coast, Sprenz was ordered deported for entering Mexico illegally. He was flown to Mexico City Tuesday afternoon and transferred to a car for the drive north.

THE PENTICTON HERALD 11

Thursday, April 16, 1959

The 29-year-old bandit is wanted for robbing a bank in Hamilton, Ohio, of $29,955, for the $1,490 holdup of an Akron, Ohio, cafe and for a series of other crimes in the United States and Canada.

PLANE LED TO CAPTURE

Wreckage of a plane—one of several Sprenz used in eluding police—led to the capture.

Mexican police traced to him a Piper Pacer which cracked up landing early in April on the Gulf Coast north of Veracruz.

Sprenz broke jail a year ago in Akron with four other prisoners while he was awaiting trial for the cafe holdup. One of the fugitives was shot dead and three others quickly rounded up, but Sprenz got away.

WINDOW LEDGE ESCAPE

It was a precarious perch taken by tenant Arnold Fantl, 45, clad only in a pair of shorts, as he stood on the ledge, awaiting ladder rescue after fire broke out on the fifth floor of six-storey King Hotel in San Francisco. Smoke pours out of window. Ten persons were rescued from the upper two floors of the hotel. Three of the 10 had to be treated in hospital for assorted cuts and bruises suffered when they ran into furniture in panicky attempts to escape. (AP wirephoto)

Union Leaders 'Lack Courage To Give Facts to Members'

TORONTO (CP)—Union leaders often lack "the intestinal fortitude" to tell their members the facts of a situation, Ian F. McRae, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, said today in an address to the Personnel Association of Toronto.

"It is, of course, the duty of unions to secure the highest possible wages and best possible hours and working conditions they can for their members," Mr. McRae stated.

"But... how many times have union negotiators indicated to management spokesmen, in off-the-record comment, that they recognized that management's offer was the best it could make without putting itself at a competitive disadvantage, but that it was worth more than their own jobs were worth, to go back and tell that to their members?"

OCCURS OFTEN

"I am not suggesting this happens in every case but it does occur far more frequently than people realize."

Mr. McRae's comments were contained in a text made available to the press in advance of delivery.

Mr. McRae—who is chairman of Canadian General Electric Company Limited—said much is heard of labor's so-called right to enjoy the gains of improved productivity. He added:

"The facts are that labor is responsible for very little of whatever increased productivity does take place. It is essentially the fruit of better management, more costly and more efficient equipment, and of the courage of those who risk capital to equip the economy with better plants."

VOICES DISAGREEMENT

Mr. McRae disagreed with the recommendation of the Ontario select committee on labor relations that the voluntary revocable check-off be made mandatory.

This would mean that just as long as a majority of union members asked for it, the company would act as bill collector for the union. Neither the company nor the minority of employees would have any say in the matter.

In this connection the decision of organized labor to found its own political party should be considered.

"There are too many killings on television," says a critic. Yes, and too few in real life, in which at least one person out of 500 ought to be killed pro bono publico.

Dief Denies Interfering In Nfld. Judicial Affairs

By BERNARD DUFRESNE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—J. W. Pickersgill has accused Prime Minister Diefenbaker of interfering with the administration of justice in Newfoundland.

The prime minister promptly denied the charge, made by the Liberal MP for Bonaville-Twillingate during the Commons budget debate Wednesday.

Mr. Pickersgill said Mr. Diefenbaker had the "impertinence" to intrude into Newfoundland's affairs by insisting that the province provide for a fourth member on the provincial Supreme Court before he fills the present vacancy on the three-man court.

"I never said that," Mr. Diefenbaker interjected. "That is incorrect."

"Imagine what would have happened if the prime minister had said that to Quebec or to Ontario," Mr. Pickersgill said. "It is just because this (Newfoundland) is a small province."

CHALLENGED HIM

Mr. Pickersgill challenged Mr. Diefenbaker to run against him in Bonaville-Twillingate at the next general election.

"It wouldn't worry me if the prime minister came and tried to contest my seat," he said.

Mr. Pickersgill's speech set the tone for a series of charges and counter-charges during the half-day sitting, third day of the scheduled eight-day budget debate.

Commons veteran Hon. Earl Earl Rowe (PC—Dufferin—Simcoe), first elected in 1925, blamed the former Liberal administration for the economic ills that had forced Finance Minister Fleming to present a "difficult" budget.

The minister had had "a heretofore left on his doorstep by the smug complacency of a government in power too long," he said.

ANNOUNCED OPENING

In other Commons developments Wednesday:

1. Transport Minister Hees announced the St. Lawrence Seaway will open for navigation April 25.

2. Leaders of all parties expressed regret at the resignation of U.S. State Secretary Dulles, ailing with cancer.

In a Senate debate on trade, Senator Wishart Robertson (L—Nova Scotia) said western Europe's six-nation common market will form an economic bloc of 300,000,000 consumers.

"Europe's bold, enlightened and dramatic approach to economic collaboration makes our existing trade practices in North America as obsolete as the horse and buggy."

The six participating countries—France, West German, Italy and the Benelux countries—would be "free of all the increased trade obstacles that so often occurred in the past with every chill economic wind that blows."

Ed Nasserden (PC—Rosthern) said many civil servants do not appreciate the fact that there has been a change of government and still seem to think their orders come from the Liberals. The government was too generous with them.

Menzies Plans Key Talks on World Trip

CANBERRA, Australia (Reuters)—Prime Minister Robert Menzies will have "important" talks with the prime ministers of Canada, Britain and New Zealand during a world trip to begin at the end of April, an official statement said today.

He also may have talks with President Eisenhower.

The announcement said Menzies will leave Sydney April 28 in the Orient liner, Orcares for San Francisco.

Menzies will meet Prime Minister Diefenbaker in Ottawa May 21 and later will meet the Canadian cabinet.

He will visit Washington May 22 to 27 to discuss foreign affairs and financial matters.

He will fly to London toward the end of May and have discussions with Prime Minister Macmillan and members of the British cabinet.

KELOWNA MAN DIES IN CRASH

CHASE, B.C. (CP)—Douglas A. C. Smith, 33, a Kelowna garage operator, was killed in an automobile accident at Stormont Crossing, two miles north of here.

RCMP said a patrol car discovered the vehicle in a ditch. Mr. Smith was on a business trip by himself.

Police said they believe he missed a turn in the road at a curve where several other accidents had occurred previously.

Mr. Smith took over the garage business from his father, Alex J. Smith, who died last November. Born and educated in Kelowna, he served overseas with the RCAF as an aero-engine mechanic.

His wife and two sons survive.

Injured Russian Opens His Eyes For First Time

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Evgenij Ivanovich Gneushev, a young Russian seaman injured on his ship in the Bering Sea two weeks ago, opened his eyes yesterday for the first time since he was injured.

The 23-year-old native of Vladivostok, partially paralyzed as the result of a brain injury suffered when he fell into the hold of the Soviet refrigerator ship Pischavaya Industria seemed only dimly aware of his surroundings.

Doctors of Elmendorf air force base hospital said Gneushev's chances of surviving have improved slightly but that he still is in critical condition.

The Pischavaya Industria transferred Gneushev to the U.S. Coast Guard cutter Storis last week. He was taken to Cold Bay, Alaska and flown here by coast guard plane last Thursday.

Top Winners of Annual News Awards Listed

WINNIPEG (CP)—Winners of the first annual Western Canada news awards by the Winnipeg Press Club were announced today by Attorney-General Sterling Lyon, chairman of a seven-man judging panel.

The awards were made for the best entries in four categories in 1958: Newspaper story, news photograph, radio news story and television news story. Employees of newspapers, radio and television stations from the Lakehead to the Pacific coast were eligible to enter. Entries came all parts of the west.

The newspaper story award went to Ed Cosgrove of the New Westminster Columbian for his coverage of the Second Narrows Bridge collapse June 17.

The news photo award went to Bill Rose of the Winnipeg Free Press for a picture of a wrecked car involved in a fatal accident. A pair of ornamental dice in the windshield showed a count of two—"snake eyes" or a lost bet in a dice game.

CJOB MAN WINS

The radio news award went to Dudley Patterson of CJOB Winnipeg for a telephone interview with a berserk Winnipeg man who had locked himself in his house and was standing off police with rifle fire.

The television news award was won by Bill Cunningham of CBUT, the CBC's Vancouver television station, for a feature on unemployment in Vancouver used on the program Newsmagazine.

Honorable mention was given to Frank Jones of the Winnipeg Tribune for a newspaper story on the traffic death of a pensioner who remained unidentified for several days, and to Ev Dutton of CKRC Winnipeg for a feature broadcast on the Springhill mine disaster.

A special citation went to Ken MacGray of the Port Arthur News-Chronicle for a report on irregularities in municipal affairs at Geraldton, Ont.

The awards will be presented at the Press Club's annual reunion dinner April 23, marking the club's 71st anniversary.

O'Neil Remanded On Theft Charge

KAMLOOPS (CP)—Jack O'Neil, charged with theft of $47,000 in cash and cheques from the City of Kelowna, was remanded Wednesday when he appeared in police court here. O'Neil is being held in the Kamloops provincial jail.

RCMP in Kelowna said defence counsel Norman Mullins requested the remand. He appeared in Kamloops court to save RCMP the expense of bringing him to Kelowna.
